THE R.C.A.S William White of the County of Prince George and State of Virginia is justly indebted unto John Read of the same County and State the sum of seven hundred dollars, which he is desirous to secure unto the said John Read, and for that purpose has agreed to convey the property hereafter mentioned to James Leahy and John Hancock junior, or the survivor of them, for the purposes and on the trust, hereafter to be expected, Now this Indenture made on the seventh day of September in the year Eighteen hundred and one, Between William White of the one part, John Read of the other part, and James Leahy and John Hancock junior of the other part, Witnesseth that the said William White, in consideration of the above mentioned reasons and premises and of the sum of one dollar, to him in had paid by the said James Leahy and John Hancock junior has granted, bargained sold, alined, impreffed, conveyed and tran-ferred, and hereby does grant, bargain, sell, alien, impreff, convey and transfer, unto the said James Leahy and John Hancock junior, all the right title and estate, which he the said William White hath, either in Law or equity, unto a Lot or Lots of Land in the town of Kempville and County aforesaid, which he bought of Samuel Newton, administrator with the will annexed of Robt Battard on the second day of May in the year one thousand hundred and seventy one, as by the Deed will fully appear, with all the Houses standing thereon, and all other the appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any manner appertaining, To have and to hold the said Land Houses and appurtenances, unto them the said James Leahy and John Hancock junior, and their heirs forever, In Trust nevertheless of the said William White his heirs executors, or administrators to well and truly pay unto the said John Read his heirs, executors administrators or Apysns, the sum of Seven hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date hereof, and the Costs of this deed, on or before the Seventh day of September which shall be in the year Eighteen hundred and two, then all the estate Right, title and interest hereby granted and conveyed unto the said James Leahy and John Hancock junior, shall entirely cease, expire and determine, and the said William White does hereby authorize, impower and enable the said James Leahy
