Western waters at Twelve months credit with good and sufficient security as will pay all my Just Debts, giving a preference to those who have never persecuted me with suits, after paying up the sums received out of the Debts due to me.

I desire that as much of my western lands may be sold for cash as will raise a sum sufficient to pay for the following legacies to wit.

I leave to each of my three sons and my Daughter Catharine, a Gold watch and a mourning ring, and that my executors may import from London the above watches with suitable seals &c as also the rings, together with a mourning ring for each of my following friends, who I request may accept of them and wear them in remembrance of a departed friend Viz^t Thomas Montgomerie esq^r Richard Brent esq^r Robert Graham Esq^r Major George Brent, Cumberland Wilson Esq^r & Doct^r Geo. I leave my Daughter Catharine, viz^t Fanny & her Children.

I leave to my son Richard negro Stephen and the Mutatto Boy &c.

My reason for making the above separate legacies is because my sons George and John have all the negroes at the death of their mother that came by her agreeable to a settlement made on them by their grand father George Brent Esq^r as per record in P^s William County.

I leave all the rest of my negroes, stock, and personal Estate, not herein mentioned to be equally divided amongst all my four Children.

I desire that the education of my son Richard, as also all reasonable expences of my other Two sons and my Daughter Catharine may be paid out of the rents or sales of my western lands until my son Richard arrives at full age, when and not before I desire that a division of my lands may take place.

I mean by the above clause that whatever sums may be needful for the necessary expensiture of my children, more than can with convenience be supplied by their mother, out of the rents of the Estate settled on her during her life may be raised as therein mentioned as I wish not to encumber her with their support further than she finds entirely convenient to herself.

Codicil.—Whereas I have since the making of the above Will sold a part of my lands on the western waters, and a part of those sold being particularly willed to my Daughter Catharine and to my nephew Henry Richard Graham, and Donald Campbell. In lieu thereof I now leave to my Daughter Catharine, Six Thousand Six hundred & Sixty six and Two third acres out of my Cow Creek Tract being one of my three lots each containing that quantity, agreeable to the division of that Tract with Col: Fitzhugh and Reynolds Johnston. She is to draw lots for her part, and I also leave to my said Daughter Catharine Three thousand, Three hundred and Twenty three and one Third acre out of my red river Tract, to be equally divided according to quantity and quality, and in proportion to the quantity that may be secured out of my Eighteen Thousand Acres, there being my share of that Tract, after paying off Col: Holders part for locating it, this makes up the quantity left her by the above Will of 10,000 Acres which is to be subject to the same option of my sons as aforesaid.

All sums of money that may be due to me at my Death either for land sold or otherwise is to be divided equally amongst my three sons aforesaid, they having to pay all my Just Debts and legacies.

I desire that Henry Richard Graham and Donald Campbell may have the quantity of land left them out of my ^{half} tract of Eight Thousand Acres on Tugues Creek held by Col: Fitzhugh and myself that was formerly entered in the name of Indeson & Oulledge.

If my Daughter Catharine should marry without the full approbation and consent of my executors aforesaid I hereby revoke all that part of my will regarding her, and in that case she is to be allowed no more than her husband will settle on her and her children out of his own estate, adding thereto the same sum to be paid her by my executors, and to be included in the said Marriage Settlement.
