

And the order of September 1801 last being signed and one of opinion that the said will be established without the proviso and recorded as if no such proviso had been made. It appearing to the Court that there was no evidence to support the proviso and that the same were not made by the Testator. From which opinion of the Court George Burroughs one of the Presiding Justices in the said will prayed an appeal to the next General Court which is granted upon giving to and with Security in the office in the sum of thirty pounds for prosecuting the same with effect.
