F. S. Pollock & Co

Attest I Francis Godby of the County of Pulaski and State of Virginia. Considering the uncertainty of this life and transiting Godby & Co. do make and publish and deliver this my last will and testament in manner and to the following that is to say:

Desiring to make provision for the support of all my property, real and personal of which I am posses-ed. I hereby give and bequeath, first, all my former expenses shall have been paid together with my just debt, (any) to my son Reason & Godby all of my property, both real and personal, with the addition ing and request that my beloved wife Rhoda should during her natural life, hold and enjoy on her of all my property bequeathed above. And at her death to become the property of my son Reason & Godby.

The object of the testator in making this bequest to my said son Reason & Godby, is in consideration of the great trouble and expense already incurred in the maintenance of the testator and his beloved wife Rhoda, and to forever release my son Reason & Godby from the payment of any sum, or sums of money that may hereafter be claimed by any of my children as due and coming to them by any former bequest of mine.

The foregoing figures is subject to the right of my beloved wife Rhoda, as already mentioned, and by will and desire is that my executor shall assign her dower in my land, including the dwelling house.

I do hereby certify and affirm

My son Reason Godby Executor of this my last will and testament, hereby executing all former orders by me at any time made. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 4th day of July 1867.

In the Worshipful Court of Pulaski County, Above is present at a settlement of the account of James A. Walker, administrator of the estate of Thomas Page deceased, showing a balance against the Administrator of $7884.50, composed of three debts due the estate, one for the sum of $155.39 20 and another upon which there is a balance due of about $1118. for the recovery of these debts suits have been instituted in the Circuit Court of Augusta County, but it is not expected that any thing will be realized on the first mentioned debt, and but little of anything on the other.
