"I, James Catfer feeling my time to be of short duration and being absent from my home wish to dispose of my personal property as I think best.
Therefore I create this short will of my property hoping it may be distributed in the way named, though it be not written according to the form of law, or according to the laws of the State.

My Will is as follows. The land on which my father and my mother lived I wish to be divided between my children as they are fit with till their deaths.
The land on which my wife now lives is still to be held by her as long as she lives. After her death I wish all the same land to be equally divided between my three children, Frank lin R. Catfer, William B. Catfer, and Marinda J. Catfer.
My stocks and all my household property I wish to be held by my wife till her death.
My saddle I give to Franklin R. Catfer. To John my property.
The land which I sold to Joseph Decentury, after my debts are paid out of it, I wish for the sum to be paid for the school my of my three children, as far as it may advance them.
This is all I wish to be strictly observed to. I wish it to be held. Written at present camp, Elmore New York.

Required. At a court held for the County of Pulaski, on Thursday, the 7th day of September 1865.
The last will and testament of James Catfer deceased, was this day presented in Court, proven by the oath of Isaac Tipton, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that William B. Williams, the other subscribing witness thereto, is now dead, his hand writing was duly proven, and the said Will ordered to be recorded.

I Francis Allison Sr. of the County of Pulaski and State of Virginia make this my last will and testament, directing all others by me made heretofore, as follows, to wit, 1st (first), I bequeath all the lands I own above the John Catfer tract, and also James Lindsay's land, known as the Boone land, and also the tract of land upon which William Fairless lives, and that upon which James Rogers lately lived, the whole of these several tracts of land I wish to be divided into three equal parts, one of which parcels I give to William Allison and his wife Mary Ann; the second parcel I will to William Fairless and his wife Nancy, the third parcel I will to Charles H. Fairless to be shared when his power this land is to be divided equally as to quality and quantity.
2nd. All my other lands of whatever kind I own or have I will and bequeath to my nephew, the son of J. Moses B. Floyd of the County of Pulaski and State of Virginia, do make certain and declare this instrument of writing to be my last will and testament.

1st I give to my wife Martha who has been to me most kind and affectionate, any one room in my dwelling house which she may select to be herself and possessed by her during her natural life, I also give to her my buggy and my best three year Colts and one good bed and bedding complete and in addition to these I require my Son Joseph B. Floyd and my son in law John A. Baue to furnish her with every thing necessary & proper to enable her to live well and comfortable.

2nd I give to my friend Sir William R. Harris my gold watch.

3rd I have heretofore given to my Son in Law Robert P. Harris and his wife Eleanor a tract of land lying near where Rogers old Church formerly stood together with a good deal of personal property the several items of which with the value I have given to them may be seen by referring to my account Book. The gifts I now make and confirm and cause and make void the accounts and I have given them in addition thereto a bond I hold on Charles I have for a bond forty five dollars.

4th The balance of my estate both real and personal I dispose of as follows. I give one half thereof to my Son Joseph B. Floyd and the other half I give to my Son in Law John A. Baue and his wife (my daughter) Elizabeth. But I require of them to pay off all my just debts and funeral expenses and in order to enable them to an equitable division my Son Joseph must pay off the bond I hold on him and John A. Baue must pay off or charge himself with seven hundred and eighteen dollars the amount charged to him in my account Book. I also require them to furnish Mrs. Mathe Baskin with a good new saddle and a good bed, bedding and bedding complete.

5th And Lastly I constitute and appoint John A. Baue and Joseph B. Floyd my Executors of this my last will and testament, and my confidants in this is such that I do not need the Court's review of them security, as such and asking as executors I wish them to have an inventory and appraisement made of my personal Estate but no sale of anything good be made without my signature and seal this 31st day of May 1865
