Whitaker Will.

Know all men by this present that I James Whitaker of County of Pendleton and State of South Carolina for and in consideration of the sum of one thousand, eight hundred and sixty pounds lawful money as my next and right friend, do hereby devise to my son in law Patrick O'Donald all my right & title to a tract of land lying on the waters of Pink Creek adjoining the land of R. L. Martin & others & the land I purchased from Mr Gallaher & others & the dower that the said Patrick is to have of the above named tract of land during his life time, after his death to be sold and divided among my children then living, or that the said O'Donald may at any time if he chooses sell and divide the said premises after paying expenses of sale &c if any, with my children as above stated.

Witness my hand and seal this 23rd day of March 1861

Witness
William Gallaher
Robert Martin
Reuben & Whitaker

James A Whitaker Seal
mark

Virginia, At a Court held for the County of Pendleton on Thursday the 5th day of August 1861

The last Will and testament of James A Whitaker deceased was presented in Court, proved by the oaths of Robert L Martin and William Gallaher, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded.

Test J. B. Earhart Clk Ct

I Margaret Peay, being of sound mind & disposing memory do hereby make and publish this my last Will and testament revoking all former wills and codicils.

Margaret Peay Will

It is my wish and desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be paid by my executors & that of remain the remainder of my estate & property shall be distributed as follows, to wit.

To my grand daughter Margaret Peay daughter of my son Robert Peay I give and bequeath my negro Patty. To my grand son Thomas P. Patterson I give and bequeath my negro boy Edward, but in the event my said grand son Thomas P. Patterson should die before he arrives at the age of 21 years then it is my will that the said boy Edward shall revert & belong to my grand daughter Margaret Patterson

To my grand daughter Margaret H. Walker I give and bequeath my negro boy Henry and my

To my daughter Margaret Hargis wife of Peter Hargis I give and bequeath the sum of $ to be paid by my executor as hereafter directed from the sale of my negro girl Sarah, and it is my will that she shall not be charged by my executor with said sum or any interest thereon.

To my grand daughter Margaret Altaffer I give and bequeath the sum of $ to be paid by my executor as hereafter directed when she is paid.

To my grandson William P. Hargis I give and bequeath the sum of $ but it is my will that the above money bequeathed shall not be paid until [illegible] to pay the same immediately in cash or debts due to me after the payment of my debts & funeral expenses herein & my personal estate to be sold & said bequest or any part of them.

To my daughter Agnes Dobson I give my silver spectacles.

To my daughter Mary M. Lewis I give my gold spectacles.

To my daughter Elizabeth Patterson I give my gold breast pin.

To my daughter Margaret Hargis I give my large gold ring.

To my son William C. Peay I give a bedstead & feather bed and such other clothing and bedding I may have.

To my daughter Sarah A. Walker I give and bequeath my negro woman Lucy & her child named Lucy. My negro woman Rebecca, boy Hugh by & by carriage & horses together with all my household furniture & personal estate of every kind not herein disposed of by this will, to be sold & separate use, for the benefit of the husband, To my grand daughter Margaret Patterson I give my silver tea spoons.

I do hereby appoint my son in law Samuel A Walker sole executor of this my last will and testament. Given under my hand this 5th day of February 1860

Margaret Peay

Attest
D. Sloan
Wm Mann

Virginia, At a Court held for the County of Pendleton on Monday the 2nd day of December 1861

The last will and testament of Margaret Peay, was this day presented in Court, proved by the oath of William Mann, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered for further proof.

And at a Court held for the County of Pendleton on Monday the 6th day of January 1862

The last will & testament of Margaret Peay was now again presented in Court, proved by the oath of