Henry In the name of God Amen I Henry Patton of the County of Pulaski and State of Virginia being weak in body but of sound mind disposing memory do make and declare this to be my last will and testament (hereby revoking all former wills by me made) in manner and form following. After paying all my just debts which are but few I give and bequeath to my dearly beloved wife Eleanor M. Patton one third part of the plantation on which I live during her natural life, which shall include the mansion house, well, barn and other buildings. I reserve and bequeath to my wife Eleanor M. Patton her choice of my two negro men Edmund and George, all my negro women Phillis during her natural

The administration assumed a judgment for costs at the April term of the Superior Court 1849 in the case of Adams for Davis with which he will hereafter be chargeable, should the same be collected, and he will be entitled to a credit also for all costs he may hereafter pay out growing out of said suit. I make this statement for the government of a Commissioner in future in making a settlement all of which is also respectfully submitted this 25th day of April 1849.

Parker I George W. Baskerville of Pulaski County to make and publish my last will and testament in manner and form following

First, I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid, and that a portion of my personal property not needed by my wife and my interest in the Bell lands be sold by my executors, in the selection of the property to be sold, I desire that my executors shall be governed by the directions of my wife.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my children Lemtha M. Martha A. John B. and Spencer Baskerville the sum of ten hundred dollars each.

Thirdly, I give and bequeath to my wife Nancy B. Baskerville with all the residue of my property, both real and personal, to be disposed of by her as she may think proper, and if sold by her on confidence that she will divide the proceeds among my children as she may think fit, I desire and direct that when either and each of my children shall need a horse, saddle, shackle, that my wife shall give them one, and if my wife should dispose of my property above bequeathed to her, I direct that the interest arising up on the sums above given my children shall be paid to them.

Fourthly, I appoint Henry Ransom and John B. Baskerville executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others by me heretofore made, and having a good many debts owing to me which might jeopardized by attempting to enforce an immediate collection, I desire that my executors shall use their discretion as to the time and manner of collecting them.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 21st day of August 1869.

And at a Court held for said County the 5th day of Nov. 1852. A settlement and report of the account of William Miller Adm^r of James Adams dec^d was again presented in Court, and thereupon George by his attorney and asked the Court to continue the same until the next term of the Court, which motion was resisted by the attorney for the Adm^r whereupon after hearing the parties by their attorneys, the Court refused to continue the case and thereupon the attorney for the Adm^r consents to a continuance until the December term of the Court. There is a verdict that the same be continued. Copy

Virginia: At a Court held for the County of Pulaski the 6th day of January 1853.

A settlement of the account of William Miller Adm^r of James Adams dec^d made by John B. Dickinson, Commissioner was again presented in Court and after the argument of Counsel fully heard the Court decided to admit the same to record and the question recurring to the Court as to which statement in said report should be adopted as the true and proper one and that question being fully argued, and the parties by their attorneys fully heard. On consideration whereof the Court doth decide that the second statement presents a proper statement of the said Adm^r's accounts and the same is ordered to be recorded.

And the Court doth order that the defendant George Sammons pay to the plaintiff William Miller the Adm^r of his costs by him in this behalf expended.
