Henry In the name of God Amen I Henry Patton of the County of Pulaski and State of Virginia being weak in body but of sound mind disposing memory, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament (hereby revoking all former wills by me made) in manner and form following (Wit) After paying all my just debts which are but few I give and bequeath to my dearly beloved wife Eleanor M. Patton one third part of the plantation on which I live during her natural life, which shall include the mansion house, well, barn and other buildings. I also give and bequeath to my wife Eleanor M. Patton her choice of my two negro men Edmund and George, all my negro woman Abigail during her natural property of every description be appraised and sold at public auction to the highest bidder upon a credit of twelve months.

I give and bequeath to my wife Eleanor & their children one third part of all my personal property with the privilege of taking the same at its appraised value or at the sale as she may choose (during her natural life).

I give and bequeath to my son William Patton the sum of Five Dollars, he having received his portion of my estate at the decease of my wife Eleanor H. Patton. I desire that all my landed estate be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, one half of the purchase money to be paid down and the balance twelve months thereafter and the proceeds thereof together with the proceeds of the personal property to be equally divided between my son Stephen Patton, my daughter Elizabeth Ingram Henry, my son Thompson Patton, Susan Patton, Maria Cummings, the heirs of Samuel Patton, the heirs of Eliza Thorn, dec'd Luciaa. W. Donald and Leavin Patton their heirs &c.

It is my wish and desire that the tract of land on which Robert L. Parker now resides, be sold as soon as convenient after my decease, giving due notice thereof and the proceeds of such sale to be paid over to my son Thompson Patton, upon the condition that he will pay the legatee the sum of Four Hundred Dollars to be distributed as above directed. It is to be understood that, in case my son Thompson complies with the above condition that he is to have no lot nor part in the balance of my real and personal estate.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Luciaa McDonald that one of two negro boys who will remain after my wife Eleanor H. shall have made her choice, who shall be appraised and the amount of such appraisement deducted from the portion above devised to her.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Nancy Steel after the decease of my wife Eleanor H. Patton the negro man and woman devised to her, which negroes shall be appraised and the amount of such appraisement to be deducted from the portion above devised to her.

It is my desire that the bound girl Susan who was with my wife during the term for which she was bound.
