22d of June A. D. 1861. I, Oscar of the County of Pulaski and State of Virginia do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say,

Perish, I desire not doubt that all my just debts be paid, and for this purpose I authorize and empower my Executors, hereinafter named, to borrow as much money as may be necessary for that purpose. The money so borrowed by them to be repaid out of the profits of my estate as hereinafter directed.

Secondly, I desire and direct, that my Estate shall be kept together and managed to the best advantage by my executors until it shall become necessary by the marriage or arrival at full age of some or one of my children for a distribution thereof on the happening of either of which events, I desire divided equally among all my children.

Thirdly, My wife being now pregnant, and likely in a few months to give birth to a child, in the event of that child being, I desire and direct, that it shall share my Estate equally, with my other children - in the event however of its death without issue, before it arrives at lawful age, I bequeath the portion which it may have received or be entitled to, under my Will, to such of my other children as there shall be at my decease &c.

Fourthly, My Wife having signified her intention and wish to depend upon the estate, and to take that wholly care of my children which they need, I desire and direct that she be, permitted to do so, and that a comfortable provision be made for her out of my estate, during her widowhood.

I do not and shall be applied, to for as may be necessary, to the repayment of any money borrowed by my Executors, for the purpose of paying my debts, as hereinbefore directed.

of paying my debt, as hereinafter devised, Sixthly. I desire and desire that my son David L. Pierce shall be liberally and thoroughly educated and that the expenses of educating all my children shall be paid out of my estate.

all my children shall be paid out of my estate, Solemnly I desire and direct that my Executors shall have the new dwelling house commenced by me properly finished and completed Exactly, Having received of Charles and Anthony Evans the full amount of the finebaw money paid by me for the plantation on which they live, called the Cat Hole, and not having made them a Deed for it, I hereby, authorize, empower and direct my Executors to execute a Deed conveying all my interest in that tract of land to them,

Now Assembly, I affirm my brother William Pierce and my friends Edwin Watson, and William A. Stuart, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and Testaments by me heretofore made.
