Before the Worshipful Court of Pulaski County

Also is presented a settlement of the account of James B. Taylor as administrator de bono fide of James B. Chastellon decd. all the items of credit to the said estate in the foregoing account were properly assets of the estate of the late John M. B. Taylor, but for the purpose of keeping them distinct and of enabling the admin^r to meet the liabilities of Chastellon's estate with the funds arising from that estate, the accounts have been separately kept. The above statement shows a balance in the hands of the admin^r de bono fide of eleven hundred and eighty three dollars and eighty nine cents, to which thirteen months interest should be added, and the sum and the interest aforesaid, divided to James B. Taylor, as one of the admin^{rs} of John M. B. Taylor decd. Respectfully submitted
