W. J. Sifton
Know all men by these presents that I William Sifton of the County of Pulaski and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do hereby make and constitute this my last will and testament, revoking all others, and do bequeath and devise, my property both real and personal and real in the following manner to wit:

1st I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Patsy, all my personal estate to be used by her and to be disposed of by her in the manner she may deem proper, during her life time after so much has been expended as will pay my just debts and defray my funeral expenses.

2nd I give and bequeath to my beloved wife wife Patsy all my real estate to hold and have to her own use and profit during her life time, and to be managed and disposed as she may see proper to do.

3rd And after her death, I desire that all my estate both personal and real, may equally be divided among my children who may survive me, or be my lawful heirs, to be disposed
