Recorded 17 July at Dorset 1662

Teste me Wm. Granger Clerk Com Rappah'
At a grand Assembly held at James City March the 25 1661 Thomas Coll More Gentlery before the Committee appointed for the Indians business did falsely & scandalously declare that he demanded the King's quarter money of Rappah' for dumping their tribute to the Right Honorable Sir William Berkeley & Chancerying to Engage or Extort his own fault in his said unjust proceedings ag-st the Indians said that the warrant he acted off them for ransom was in Satisfaction of their said Tribute & paid by him to the said Indian King During the late Government. It is therefore ordered by the Assembly that for the same & other illegall proceedings the said Colonel Cartterry be made wholly incapable of bearing any office or Command Civil or military in this Country & forthwith give one good Security for his good behaviour & Civil Carriage Especially towards the Indians & for prevention of the further Damage the hogs of the said Cartterry may do the Indians before the time he shall according to act but that Case provided It is ordered that Col^d Cartterry keep one hogg & keep the Indians another for this present year.

Per C^ospia C^off. Hen^o Randolph C^o Assen the second Ship or else to see the same Execution. It is ordered that Thomas Dromie Robert Amstrong John Dromie & one ballentine pay unto Colpeccimmon King of Mattapony & his matchcoats in Compensation of the said Lands taken from the said King's hogs & it is further ordered if there be any more had any of the skins that then they receive of them their proportions & I Coll^d Strickland & W^h George Marsh are authorized to see this order performed & in case of non payment to see forth Execution.

Orders Concerning the King of Moraticund.

Whereas divers English are seated illegallly near unto the King of Moraticund his town who being free men if they should be removed might probably be thereby be ruined & whereas the King of Moraticund hath freely & voluntarily consented to the continuance of their seating provided his town be sufficiently seated & have also some small Satisfaction for the Land It is therefore ordered by Consent of both Parties that the said English which which hath seated within three miles of the bounds of the said King & have no right & title therunto by Purchase in quallity Cant or otherwise according to Law Continue still seated without further that as in nature of a tenure whereby they hold their said Lands that first they pay unto the said King one matchcoat for every hundred acres they occupy before December next also that they unto the assistance of the said King's Indians Except five of his great men sufficiently seeke to keep out hogs & Cattle the Cornfields of the said

King & the Indians that reside there with him & also that they the said English with the said assistance always sufficiently keep in Repair the said Towne It is also further ordered that there be no more Intrenchments by the English upon the said Kings Land by clearing any more Lands of their Inclosures on that side which lyes towards the Indians Land that is within a mile of the said Kings Towne It is also ordered that Annas Towne who hath built a Little quarter between the woods & the Indians be removed. It is ordered by the Court for the Indian affairs that the Moratound Indians have twelfthousand acres of Land for their town & Cornfields beginning at the
