

In the name of God Amen I Aley Norman of the County of Rappahannock being in a weak state of health, but of a sound mind and disposing memory do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that to say I give and bequeath to Thomas Norman my husband my Negro man by the name of Edmund, for and during his my said husband's life, and in case the said Negro man Edmund should live longer than Thomas Norman my said husband, then he said Negro I desire that he shall be free. I further give all the balance of my property both real and personal to Thomas Norman my husband to do as he thinks proper with for and during his natural life, And at his death, what there may be left to be divided as follows, One half to the Norman my Brother William Norman's son and the other half to be equally divided between my Brother Joseph Norman's son, called John Norman, and my sister Elizabeth Rogers son Robert, And lastly I desire that Burrell R. Wood, shall act as Executor to this my last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof
I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 8th day of June 1833

Aley Norman (L)

Signed, Sealed and acknowledged
as my last Will and Testament in presence of

Rappahannock Co., VA Will Book A, 1833-1842

www.virginiapioneers.net and the other half to be equally divided, between my Brother ~~Alfred~~ Isaiah ~~Isaiah~~ son, ~~Alfred~~ ~~Isaiah~~, and my sister Elizabeth Rogers son Robert, And lastly I desire that Bernard H. Wood, shall act, as Executor to this my last Will and Testament

In testimony whereof
I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 8th day of June 1833

Alley Storman (Ld)

Signed, sealed and acknowledged
as my last Will and Testament
in presence of

Test

Charles Shackelford
John Chappelle
Robert Church

In Rappahannock County, Court

5th August 1833

This last Will and Testament of Alley Storman deceased; was this day exhibited to the Court and proved by the oaths of Charles Shackelford and John Chappelle two of the subscribing Witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded.