

John Puller
Will.

I John Puller of Rappahannock County, widow of John Puller deceased, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and wishing to dispose of my worldly goods as I may see proper, do make and ordain my last will, and testament in manner and form following: That to-wit:

First. It is my desire that half an acre of land including the place where my deceased husband is buried, be reserved for a burial ground where it is my desire to be buried, on the left side of my deceased husband; and that the wall which now encloses the grave, be enlarged and repaired, in a lasting manner, and that a head stone be procured and fixed at the head of my grave, like that of my deceased husband.

2^d I give to my niece Emily M. A. Bowen, In trust of Peter B. Bowen to be enjoyed by her, during her natural life, But in the event of her having no child, to be conveyed by him to any person or persons she may appoint in writing for distribution among her Brothers or Sisters or their families - viz: Two hundred and fifty acres of land to include the land on the south side of the main Road, with the houses and orchards, and one acre on the opposite side of said Road, including the Barn and Spring - Should there be named persons be insufficient to make two hundred and fifty acres then the deficiency to be made up from the lands lying between the main road, and the Road leading to "Hessons Mill".
