

This Inventory and appraisement of my Estate of Clara Lillard deceased, was this day returned into Court and ordered to be recorded.

teste Wm J. Memphree C. C.

I, Asylett Lillard do hereby make this my last will and testament Trusting in the Mercy of God; thro' my faith in the Jesus Christ, for all my hopes of happiness hereafter.
I do hereby free and emancipate all my slaves that I may own at my death, that I may not hereafter dispose of: such of the said slaves as are old and infirm, I wish to have the liberty of choosing their place of residence with any of my relations, and to receive from my Estate, such assistance as, with the work, they are able to do, will render them comfortable, without being an incumbrance where they live; and to be paid to the said slaves, old and infirm the sum of $1000.00 per annum.

Item. - Such of my said Slaves as are so nearly white, as to render unsafe for them to go to Liberia, I desire may be sent to the State of Ohio, or where Slavery is not tolerated, at the expense of my Estate. - Item. - I desire my said Slaves thus sent at the expense of my Estate, to Ohio, to be put under the protection and patronage of David Dodge, and his family, and that the said David D. may be amply compensated from my Estate for any trouble or expense he may be at in patronizing the said Slaves.

Item. - I wish Patty may choose her patron, and for her honesty and faithfulness I leave her twenty Dollars a year for five years.

Item. - I desire all my other Slaves to be transferred to the proper agent of the African Colonization Society with twenty dollars each for their transportation to Liberia; I desire my said Slaves thus emancipated to remain at their present places of abode, and to work and be fed and clothed, as in my life time, until they can at the expense of my Estate be transferred as aforesaid to the agent of the Colonization Society, to be transported to Liberia in Africa; and it would be desirable that they should not all leave the farms at once but go at several times.

Item. - To John Buckner the son of Dudley Buckner when he arrives at the age of twenty three years, I leave my tract of land called Barlow; but until said John is twenty three years old, the rents and profits of said land shall be spent in educating him in a liberal and useful manner, and when he shall

to the agent of the Colonization Society, to be transported to Liberia in Africa; and it would be desirable that they should not all leave the farms at once but go at several times.

Item: To John Buckner the son of Dudley Buckner when he arrives at the age of twenty three years, I leave my tract of lands called Barlow; but until said John is twenty three years old, the rents and profits of the said lands shall go a part in educating his brothers; and of the said tract no more is to be cleared, and no part of what is cleared is to be cultivated in Indian corn oftener than once in five years.

Item: - of the tract of lands on which I reside, that part I bought of Benjamin Callison, containing two hundred and twenty three acres I leave to my wife Mary Conway during her life, and at her death to her son or sons.

Item: - That part of the said tract on which I reside, called Channel on the south of Doyle River, I leave to Odorous R. Stuart.

Item: - That part of said tract on which I reside with the house sit. lying on the north of Doyle River I leave to Edward Thornton during his life, and at his death to his legal heirs or children, but if he dies without lawful heirs, then the said lands is to go to any of his nephews or nephews to whom the said Edward shall by Will leave the said lands.

Item: - My land on the north of Doyle River I leave to Walker Harves the son of my son Walker Harves.

to his son or sons.

Item - That part of the said tract on which I reside, called Chances, on the south of Doyle River, I leave to Rodolph D. Stuart.

Item - That part of said tract on which I reside with the same tract, lying on the north of Doyle River I leave to Edward Thornton during his life, and at his death to his legal child or children, but if he dies without lawful child, then the said land is to go to any of his nephew or nephews to whom the said Edward shall by Will leave the said land.

Item - My land in the County of Caroline I leave to Walker Haues the son of my Brother Walker Haues.

Item - I leave to Edward Thornton the superintendence of the negroes until they are removed to Ohio and Liberia - And to Walker Haues the superintendence of those in Caroline.

Item - I wish Thomas Walden to have the collection of the debts due to me: If I am indebted to any person I am ignorant of it.

Item - After the expenses of transporting the slaves to Ohio and Liberia are paid, the balance that may be left, together with the proceeds of my personal property and Bank shares, I desire to be constituted in the County of Stafford, Va. Will Book A, 1833-1842 now so constituted) and that one hundred and fifty dollars of said apels, both principal and interest, shall acting as they best be paid annually to each of the Grandsons of my Brothers and Sisters during the term of such Grandson or Grandsons may be students at the University of Virginia.

Item I wish my Health and Strength would enable me to make a number of small Sequences in remembrance of innumerable Kindnesses received.

This is the first written Copy of this my last Will and Testament which has been delayed, until I am hardly able to write: my intention is to revise and rewrite it, if it shall please God to restore my Health, signed with my own hand.

Item I desire that my Household furniture may not be sold, but that my deceased wife's relations may divide it amongst them.

Item The money and Bank shares which are above directed to be paid to the Grandson or Grandsons of my Brothers and Sisters as they become and remain Students at the University of Virginia I desire may be put if possible under the patronage of the Trustees of said University, and if not so, then that it be put in the hands of some other person or persons, then that be paid to the Grandson or Grandsons of my Brother and Sister as they come and remain Students at the University of Virginia

I desire may be put if possible under the patronage of the Trustees of said University; but if that cannot be accomplished, then that it be put in the hands of Walker Claves son of my Brother Walker for the purpose aforesaid: on this 9th of August 1802 with own hand & seal my name.

George Burneyman

In Rappahannock County Court

7th October 1803

This writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Aslett Claves deceased, was this day exhibited to the Court, and proved by the oath of Frances Willis one of the subscribing Witnesses thereto. And James Mason and Philip Thornton were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the Testator's hand writing, and verily believe that the said writing and the signature thereto be wholly written by the Testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the last Will and Testament of Aslett Claves deceased.
And on the motion of James Mason & Philip Thornton

In Rappahannock County Court

7th October 1853

This writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Angell Graves deceased, was this day exhibited to the Court, and proved by the oath of Francis Willis one of the subscribing Witnesses thereto. And James Mason and Philip Thornton were sworn and solemnly depose that they are well acquainted with the Testator's hand writing, and verily believe that the said writing and the signature thereto be wholly written by the Testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the last Will and Testament of the said Angell Graves deceased. And on the motion of Thomas Walden whose appointment under a power under Will to collect the debts due to the said Graves, and who appears to the Court to be Executor according to the Tenor of the said Will so far as the said Will are concerned. Letters Testamentary upon that part of the said Graves's Estate, which consists of assets outstanding debts are granted to him; Whereupon he qualified as such Executor by taking the oath, and together with Nathan Allen, Benjamin Hughes, Angell B. Walden, Churchill Allen, Walter Henry, Alfred A. Shomlin and William M. Walden his Secretary entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Twenty thousand dollars, conditioned as follows.

And at a Court continued and held for said County on Tuesday the 8th day of October 1833. This said last Will and Testament of Aylett Staves deceased, which was on yesterday proved and admitted to record, was again exhibited to the Court, and thereupon Benjamin F. Pulliam and George Bumgarner the other subscribing witnesses thereto, appeared in Court and proved the said will in fact. Whereupon it is ordered that the said last Will and Testament of Aylett Staves deceased, be admitted to full probate as a last will and testament of said deceased. On the motion of Howard F. Thornton who is appointed by the said will of said deceased to Superintend the Slaves in County of Rappahannock, as is expressed by the said Will, until the same are transported to the State of Ohio and to Liberia in Africa, and who appears to the Court, to be Executor, according to the tenor of the said Will, so far as the said duty is concerned, letters Testamentary upon that part of the said Staves's Estate are granted to him, whereupon he qualified as such Executor, and together with Walter Staves and Philip Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Five thousand dollars conditioned according to Law. And on the motion of Walter Staves who is appointed by the said will of said deceased to perform certain duties therein mentioned, and who appears to the Court to be Executor according to the tenor of the said Will, so far as those duties are concerned, letters Testamentary are granted to the said Walter Staves, as Executor of the said Aylett Staves, so far as those duties are concerned, together with Walker Hawes and Philip Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Five thousand and no less Conditionals according to law - And on the motion of Walker Hawes who is appointed by the said will aforesaid to perform certain duties therein mentioned, and who appears to the court to be Executor according to the tenor of the said will, so far as those duties are concerned, letters testamentary are granted to the said Walker Hawes, as Executor of the said Asyell Hawes; so far as those duties are concerned, whereupon he gave and affixed as such Executor and together with Thomas Walden, Philip Thornton and Edward F. Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Ten thousand and no less, Conditionals according to law. And on the motion of the said Walker Hawes for Administration of the will annexed of Asyell Hawes deceased upon such part of the said Asyell Hawes's Est. as may not be embraced in the grants of letters Testamentary upon the said Estate to Thomas Walden, Edward F. Thornton and the said Walker Hawes heretofore made to them, such Administration is granted to him, whereupon he made oath thereof and together with Thomas Walden, Philip Thornton and Edward F. Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of $10,000 Conditionals according to law.

7th October 1803

This writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Aslett Claves deceased, was this day exhibited to the Court, and proved by the oath of Frances Willis one of the subscribing Witnesses thereto. And James Mason and Philip Thornton were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the Testator's hand writing, and verily believe that the said writing
and the signature thereto be wholly written by the Testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the last Will and Testament of Aslett Claves deceased.

In Rappahannock County Court

This writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Angell Claives deceased, was this day exhibited to the Court, and proved by the oath of Francis Willis one of the subscribing Witnesses thereto. And James Mason and Philip Thornton were sworn and solemnly deposed that they are well acquainted with the Testator's hand writing, and verily believe that the said writing and the signature thereto be wholly written by the Testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the last Will and Testament of the said Angell Claives deceased. And on the motion of Thomas Walden whose appointment under the said Will to collect the debts due to the said Claives, and who appears to the Court to be Executor according to the Tenor of the said Will so far as the said Will are concerned. Letters Testamentary upon that part of the said Claives's Estate, which consists of assets outstanding debts are granted to him; Whereupon he qualified as such Executor by taking the oath, and together with Nathan Allen, Benjamin Houghs, Angell B. Walden, Churchill Allen, Walter Hains, Alfred A. Hinton, and William M. Walden his Secretary entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Twenty thousand dollars, conditioned as follows.

And at a Court continued and herefore said County on Tuesday the 8th day of October 1833. This said last Will and Testament of Aylett Staves deceased, which was on yesterday proved and admitted to record, was again exhibited to the Court, and thereupon Benjamin F. Pulliam and George Bumgarner the other subscribing witnesses thereof, appeared in Court and proved the said will in fact. Whereupon it is ordered that the said last Will and Testament of Aylett Staves deceased, be admitted to full probate as a last will and testament of the said deceased. On the motion of Howard F. Thornton who is appointed by the said Will aforesaid to Superintend the Slaves in County of Rappahannock, as is expressed by the said Will, until the same are transported to the State of Ohio and to Liberia in Africa, and who appears to the Court, to be Executor, according to the tenor of the said Will, so far as the said duty is concerned, letters Testamentary upon that part of the said Staves's Estate are granted to him, whereupon he qualified as such Executor, and together with Walter Staves and Philip Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Five thousand dollars conditioned according to Law. And on the motion of Walter Staves who is appointed by the said Will aforesaid to perform certain duties therein mentioned, and who appears to the Court to be Executor according to the tenor of the said Will, so far as those duties are concerned, letters Testamentary are granted to the said Walter Staves, as Executor of the said Aylett Staves, so far as those duties are concerned, together with Walker Hawes and Philip Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Five thousand and no less Conditionals according to law - And on the motion of Walker Hawes who is appointed by the said will aforesaid to perform certain duties therein mentioned, and who appears to the court to be Executor according to the tenor of the said will, so far as those duties are concerned, letters testamentary are granted to the said Walker Hawes, as Executor of the said Asyell Hawes; so far as those duties are concerned, whereupon he gave and affixed as such Executor and together with Thomas Walden, Philip Thornton and Edward F. Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of Ten thousand and no less, Conditionals according to law. And on the motion of the said Walker Hawes for Administration of the will annexed of Asyell Hawes deceased upon such part of the said Asyell Hawes's Est. as may not be embraced in the grants of letters Testamentary upon the said Estate to Thomas Walden, Edward F. Thornton and the said Walker Hawes heretofore made to them, such Administration is granted to him, whereupon he made oath thereunto and together with Thomas Walden, Philip Thornton and Edward F. Thornton his securities entered into and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of $10,000 Conditionals according to law.
