Friday the 5 day of September 1834, proceed to appraise allot and divide the Slaves belonging to the Estate of Pind Eastham deceased (those belonging to the Dower excepted) among those severally entitled thereto, and after first appraising thesaid Slaves we found their value to be $957³⁰/₁₀₀ as will be seen by reference to page, showing a dividend of $957³⁰/₁₀₀ to each of the distributees of the Estate of Said Decedent there being 10 in number. We then proceeded to allot and no the said Slaves from no 1. to no 10. respectively, and when thus allotted and numbered we found the lots to vary a little in value according to our first appraisement, as will be seen by Reference to page, but when we called each lot by name and placed them before us for a Review of the same we upon a review of the lots considered, that there was no difference of valuation of said lots, as we had numbered and clasped the said Slaves. We then proceeded to distribute the several lots of Slaves as aforesaid among those severally entitled thereto by Ballot, when Lot no 1. fell to Elizabeth Jordan, Lot no 2. to the heirs of Philip Eastham deceased
Lot no 3. to John Eastham, Lot no 4. to George Eastham
Lot no 5. to John Eastham, Lot no 6. to John Eastham
Lot no 7. to George Eastham, Lot no 8. to John Eastham
Lot no 9. to John Eastham, Lot no 10. to John Eastham

difference of valuation of said lots, as we had numbered and clasped these said Slaves. We then proceeded to distribute the several lots of Slaves as aforesaid among those severally entitled thereto by Ballot, when Lot no 10. fell to Elizabeth Jordan, Lot no 4. to the Heirs of Philip Eastham deceased
Lot no 3, to John Eastham, Lot no 7 to George Eastham
Lot no 5 to Bird Eastham, Lot no 6 to Ann & Hans Lot no 8 to Branton Eastham, Lot no 1 to Robert Eastham Lot no 2 to Lawson Eastham, Lot no 9 to B. H. Eastham all of which is now most Respectfully submitted to the Honorable Court of Rappahannock. Given under our hands this 8th day of September 1834
