

This last Will and Testament of Coga Lillard was this day exhibited to the Court, and approved by the oaths of John Behan and William Walden two of the subscribing witnesses thereunto, and ordered to be recorded: And on the motion of The L. P. Lillard one of the Executors therein named, who made oath according to law, and together with John Vaughan and John Behan two secondary intendents and acknowledged a Bond in the penalty of One thousand dollars conditioned as the law directs. Certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate thereof in due form.