David I David Pitman of the County of Rappahannock do make & publish Pitman's this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making void Will all former wills by me at any time heretofore made; and as to such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to entrust me with, I dispose of the same as follows to First I direct that all my debts & funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as possible, out of the first moneys that shall come into the hands of my executor from any portion of my estate. It is my desire that all my property real and personal be kept together (as if I were living) by my executor until my youngest child shall become twenty one years old; and in the mean time if any of my children should marry I leave it discretionary with my executor to give to such child such portion of my estate as she can conveniently spare, not exceeding four hundred dollars, and charge the child or children with the same, at a fair valuation, to be accounted for by such child at the final division of my estate. It is my wish & desire that my executrix shall give my younger children such education as the older ones have, or if she chooses to give the younger children a better education than the older ones have, no charge is to be made for it in the final division. Also I do direct that at the time my youngest child becomes twenty one years old (or so soon thereafter as may be convenient) that there shall be an equal division of my whole estate real and personal among my children then living, first giving to my beloved wife Frances one third of my whole estate during her natural life and at her death to be equally divided among my children or rather their legal heirs; provided, however that if my beloved wife Frances should marry before my youngest child becomes of the age of twenty one years, that then and in that event my whole estate both real & personal shall be equally divided among my children, so soon after such marriage as possible, reserving to herself her third of the estate. I further do direct that if my older children should not marry before the youngest child becomes of age, that such of the older who may remain with my wife Frances shall not be made to pay for board or other expenses. And, I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Frances, executrix of this my last will and testament. In witness whereof, I David Blount, have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 20th day of June 1841.

my beloved wife Frances, Executor of this 3^d day of April 1846
