Will First. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Lenny Haddock the whole of my estate both real and personal (after the payment of all my just debts) during her widowhood or until my youngest child John Haddock shall arrive to the age of twenty one years, during which time she shall provide for the support and education of my daughter Julian Haddock and my son John Haddock. It is also my will and desire that my son Clinton B. Haddock remain with his mother and superintend the management of my estate for her and that he receive for his services so long as he thinks proper to remain, one third part of the profits of my estate he paying one third part of the expenses of educating my son John Haddock.

Secondly. I give to my beloved wife Lenny Haddock the privilege of making such advances to my daughter Julian Haddock should she marry before she arrives to the age of twenty one years as she may think convenient, charging my said daughter with such advance. The like privilege I give to her for the benefit of my son Clinton B. Haddock.

Thirdly. As soon as my son John Haddock arrives to the age of twenty one years it is my will and desire that the whole of my estate real personal and mixed be divided into four equal parts, one part of which I give and bequeath to my son Clinton B. Haddock and to his heirs forever, one other part I give and bequeath to my daughter Julian Haddock and to her heirs forever. One other part

I give and bequeath to my son John Haddox and to his heirs forever the other fourth part I give to my beloved wife Livvy Haddox during her natural life and at her death the same to be equally divided among my children then living and their descendants according to the statute of distributions - But if my wife Livvy Haddox should die before my son John Haddox arrives to the age of twenty one years it is my will and desire that the whole of my estate real personal and mixed be equally divided immediately thereafter among my three children herein before named.

Fourthly and lastly - I hereby constitute and appoint my beloved wife Livvy Haddox my executrix to this my last will and testament and desires that she be not required to enter into bond and security therefor for the same until complaint be made to the County Court of Rappahannock by my son Clinton B. Haddox or some one of my children that she is likely to waste my estate after which if the Court be satisfied that the complaint be well founded it is my will and desire that she be required to give bond and security as the law directs and in the event that she refuse or be unable to do the same it is also my will and desire that my son Clinton B. Haddox be appointed executor & that he be required to give bond & security according to law, hereby revoking all former or other wills by me made. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 16th day of April 1849
