Lewis Moore, Sr. considering the uncertainty of life and the duty will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time made:

1st. I give and bequeath to my wife Mary Moore, all the property money or bonds which belonged to her at the time of our intermarriage, all my right, title or interest in and to the property of every description held by her mother, and in addition thereto, I give and bequeath to her the sum of Fifteen hundred dollars which I direct shall be paid to her by my executors herein after named before any of my children, or grand children receive any thing out of my estate. And I do hereby declare my intention to be that the provisions herein made for my wife shall be in lieu of her dower and distributive share in my estate.
2nd I charge to my daughter Mary Hathaway and her children the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars to be accounted for by them in the final distribution of my estate.
3rd. I charge to my son Lewis Moore, Jr. his wife and children the sum of six hundred and twenty five dollars to be accounted for by them in the final distribution of my estate.
4th It is my will and desire that all the prob and residue of my estate not herein disposed of, and the sums of money charged in the second and third clauses of this my will be

...into two equal parts and I give and bequeath one equal sixth part thereof to my son George Moore, one equal sixth part thereof to my son James Moore, one equal sixth part thereof to my daughter Ann Carter, one equal sixth part thereof to the children of my deceased daughter Martha Carter to be equally divided among them, and one equal sixth part thereof after deducting therefrom the sum of six hundred and twenty five dollars charged in the third clause of this my will, I give and bequeath to my son James Moore upon trust for the use and benefit of my son Lewis Moore Jr. and Elizabeth Moore his wife, and the support, maintenance and education of their children during the joint lives of the said Lewis Moore Jr. and Elizabeth his wife and upon the death of either the said Lewis Moore Jr. or of his said wife upon trust for the use and benefit of the survivor of them, and the children of the said Lewis Moore Jr. during the life of the survivor; and upon the death of the survivor upon trust for the use and benefit of the children of the said Lewis Moore then living and the descendants of such as may be dead according to the proportions laid down in the statute of distributions. I give and bequeath the remaining sixth part of the said residue of my estate after deducting therefrom the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars charged in the second clause of this my will, to my son James Moore upon trust in the first place to pay all the debts of my daughter Martha Moore for which either I or the said James Moore are Mary Hathaway for which I in the said James now bound as her security, and after the payment of the said debt upon trust for the sole and separate use of the said Mary Hathaway during her life, free and clear of, and from all manner of charge and incumbrance of her husband, or any husband she may hereafter take, so that the said Mary Hathaway shall not sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of the profits or interest accruing from the same by way of anticipation; and upon the death of the said Mary Hathaway upon trust for the use and benefit of her children and descendants then living according to the provisions of the statute of distributions and in the proportions laid down in said statute.

5th I hereby constitute and appoint my sons James Moore and George Moore executors of this my last will and testament.
