

[illegible]

...my children each one accounting for such business as I have... already made to them in the other matter, may if they think proper future time make to them what the boy, Thomas and Jane believe to my son Thomas & daughter Lucy T. felt, and lately I so heavily oppressed my wife, really suffered my only daughter during her childhood and after her death my son Thomas my daughter to account that my last will and testament be witness whereof I have herewith affixed my hand and seal the twenty fourth day of June eighteen hundred and thirty eight before me acknowledged in the presence of

Mark L. C.
James Johnson
Sylv. Miller

Moses L. Jeffries

In Rappahannock County, State of Virginia 1838 The last will and testament of Moses L. Jeffries was the present to the above named by the order of James Johnson & Sylv. Miller one of the undersigned witnesses thereto and attested to be correct. which the order of Moses L. Jeffries the executor thereof named with signature thereon and signed with which has been received (which justifies as to the sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a true and of those mentioned in the above attested, and placed at present ... a part of the said will was then given