Fourthly, my will and desire is that all the money arising from the estate of my wife after defraying my debts and expenses as well as the legacy left to my wife be equally divided among my eight children as above named.

Fifthly, my will and desire is that whatever may be the portion of my estate coming to my daughter Charlotte Putnam be laid out in land and that she make choice of some person to select in place to assist her and that said person have be conveyed to her for her exclusive benefit and in no way to be liable for my debts or claims that may come against her husband James Putnam and at her death to be equally divided among her children Sixthly, my will and desire is that the portion of my estate that may be coming to my son Buraway Jenkins be equally divided among his seven children to wit, Annes Jenkins, Mary, Mary Jane Thomas, Thomas Jenkins, Rebecca Jenkins, Rachael Jenkins and Elizabeth Jenkins.

Seventhly, my will and desire is that whatever portion of my estate that may be coming to Mary Boy and Jane Atkins be for their exclusive benefit and in no way to be liable the content of James to Boy the husband of Mary Boy or Jenkins the husband of Jane Atkins.

Eighthly, it is here necessary to say that I sold to my son Barth Jenkins a certain lot of land upon which he has built but has failed to pay for it, now my desire is that he make his choice to keep the land and pay to my estate if he will.
