

[illegible]

[illegible]

James Henry, son Sarah, daughter, Catherine, one Son, also one daughter to have and to hold to him his heirs assigns from the lot to receive from my estate, location, value, and fifty cents. I further will and bequeath to my son J. B. Newton the sum of Ten hundred Dollars which sum he is to have the use of without paying interest, that when my son John is shall arrive to the age of eighteen years then the said J. B. Newton Brown shall pay to the said John the sum of Ten hundred Dollars, and when my son Virginia B. Brown shall arrive to the age of eighteen years then the said J. B. Newton Brown shall pay to him the sum of Virginia B. Brown the sum of five hundred Dollars.
Item 5. I will and bequeath to my daughter William B. Brown the following slaves, namely: Stephen, Mary, Susan, Rebecca and Henry and of my horse, further beds, stoves and furniture, and all other personal effects to J. B. and such other items of property in my dwelling house as she the said William B. Brown claims as her own, also and giving name the sum of one hundred dollars to have and to hold to her the said William B. Brown and assigns from and that the said William B.
shall to my estate the sum of thirty seven dollars and fifty cents.
Item 6. I further will and bequeath to the care and protection of my son J. B. Newton Brown my old servant Tom and to such terms as the said Tom shall wish to have, that the said J. B. Newton Brown shall allowing the said Tom freedom papers, clothing, clothing, food and clothing, from the said sum from the sum Item 7. I will and direct that the

Shirley
Penny

Revised

Revised

Revised

10.1.1850

State of Va.

Joseph S. Brown

In Rappahannock County, Virginia, this 10th of December 1850

Then last will and testament of William S. Brown deceased was this day produced to the County Court by the oath of Robert H. Lewis and Joseph S. Brown the subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded and on the motion of Mary S. Brown the executrix therein named who made oath and entered into bond in the penalty of $25,000 conditioned as the Law directs without security the testator having directed in his said will that his Executors and also his Executors Executors should not be obliged to give security and he having left real estate sufficient to pay his debts, certificate is granted her for obtaining a probate of said will in due form: Liberty being reserved to the Executors named in the said will to give on the probate when they shall see fit. And as a Court held for said County on the 8th day of July 1850. This last will and testament of Wm S. Brown deceased which has been heretofore proved & admitted to record in this Court was again this day produced to the Court and on the motion of J. S. Brown the Executor therein named who made oath and entered into bond in the penalty of $25,000 conditioned as the Law directs without security the testator having directed in his said last will that his Executors & Executors Executors should not be required to give security the having left real estate sufficient to

[illegible]

To the Honorable County Court of Northampton County
 I, the undersigned, Joseph L. Smith, do hereby certify that I am the owner of the following described property in this County, to-wit: