In The name of God Amen;

George Deatherage being in health both mind & body and knowing the uncertainty of life at all times, more especially in war; and being in my 81st year of age to make this my last will and testament. To W. & V.

1st It is my desire that my wife Mary Elizabeth shall have full control of all property both personal real & may possess, to have hold; and dispose of, as she may think best; she shall have full power to exchange sell & all which may by right hereafter come in my possession; that is she shall be my true and lawful ex; to all things now in possession or hereafter come in my possession.

2nd It is my request to her she should spare no means in her power to give our children a good education.

3rd If either or all of them should marry, and she thinks it best to give them anything she may have to spare, it is my desire she should do so bearing in mind all that she is bound to do to her husband in a substantive to be defendant.
