County and State of Virginia being of sound and disposing mind and memory in view of the uncertainty of life do make and ordain this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others by me at any time heretofore made.

First I desire that out of my estate all my just debts be paid by my administrator hereafter named.

Secondly, in consideration of the natural affection which I bear and have for my dear Mary Ann Deavers, I give devise and bequeath to her (her after the termination of this life, my farm and premises upon which I reside with all the tenements and appurtenances there-unto belonging, to have and to hold the same to her and her heirs forever.
Thirdly I further give and bequeath unto my dear Mary Ann Deavers and her and forever certain negro slaves to wit: Jerusha, Emily and all her children that she may have, as well as all the rest and residue of my property and estate in possession or hereafter to be acquired of what nature or kind soever.

Fourthly I nominate and appoint Uriah Deavers administrator of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 20th day of March 1862.
