

It is my belief that my father John W. Bolen will be the most suitable party to execute my will. I leave him as my executor, I desire that he shall take charge of my estate, collect what is due me pay all of my just debts and whatever may be left after the payment of my debts to give my wife Harriettine Bolen. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal the 25th day of September Anne Domini 1862.

In Rappahannock County Court October 9th 1865
This last will of William A. Bolen deceased was this day produced to the Court proved by the oaths of Sarah L. Kelly one of the attesting witnesses thereto, who further proved the due execution thereof by the said testator in the presence of G. W. Thompson and Felix Brown the other subscribing witnesses thereto and the said Felix Brown having departed this life his signature as a subscribing witness to the said will was proven by John W. Miller a witness sworn in Court: and therefore the said will is ordered to be recorded and on the motion of John W. Bolen the Executor named therein who made oath thereto and together with John W. Miller and John W. Hudson his securities who justified on oath as to their sufficiency entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $200 conditioned as the law directs, certificate is granted him for obtaining a Probate of the said will in due form.
