Said John Widdale and Martha his wife now present and Abraham Hammon now present as for being minded to go on show your dops^t and one sayber more named John Ingram about 6 or 7 of the Clock in the Evening went Boats out of the Sloop and the Said John Widdale and Martha ~~and~~ and down into the boat without injury and going on show the Said Widdale fell down upon the fore thwart of the boat and in going flew from the Said Sloop when in Cannon show took up the Said Widdale out of the boat Said Widdale began to drink Carried him on show and said him down not being ^{any} amage or signs of any damage he had by any thing within the Said Boat or Sloop the Said Widdale began to drink your dops^t and order or dops^t the Said Martha his wife to look him in the Rugs And for the your dops^t sayth the Said Abraham as a for did not come with your dops^t is the Said John Widdale and Martha his wife but came at the same time in a Canvas the sayber & to the same Landing and the Said Abraham went away up to the house and your dops^t and rest of the sayber went on board the Sloop and boat up the River and on Monday next this being Saturday we heard the Said Widdale was dead, the morning before being Sunday Looking into the boats saw about a spoon full or thereabouts of Water & Blood in the boats and further said if he had no other purpose upon the plantation but the presence at the bar and the John Widdale.

Respectfully

Joseph Varnis

James Sherlock Esq

Richard Ingram Sailor and Cook of the Ship Gloster Capt Edward Ellis Comander aged forty three years or thereabouts being duly sworn and Examined saith that on Saturday being the day before the death of John Widdale your dops^t being in a Sloop

1) Hoop with other Saylor, bound up Rapp's River did stop against the near the Landing where the said John Widdale then lived & upon Sloop with the rest of the Saylor, being the said John Widdale and Martha his wife now prisoner at the bar at work on the said Hoop to them to come on board their Sloop and after their releasing they of the said John Widdale and Martha his wife prisoner as aforesaid came on board of Sloop in Cannon and after drinking about a pint and a half of Punch and a pint and a half of Rum on the about 10 o'clock amongst seven prisoner viz yourdops and three Saylor more and the said John Widdale and Martha his wife prisoner at the bar as afore said and Abraham Hammon who then prisoner at the bar who afterwards came on board of Sloop in Cannon the said John Widdale being minded to go off to go dops and another Saylor did about 6 o'clock of the morning let the said John Widdale and Martha his wife prisoner as afore said in the flat belonging to the Sloop and the said John Widdale being in the flat sat down in a box a thwart at the head of the boat and in going a piece the pole of the thwart being about a foot from the bottom of the boat into the bottom of the boat but was not hurt by the fall to the best of yourdops' knowledge and when the boat came to the Landing yourdops' and another Saylor lifted the said John Widdale out of the boat and told him that they would carry him up to the house but the said John Widdale would not let them and therefore yourdops' and the other Saylor left him at the Landing. Fear of being hurt said that he was in drink to the best of yourdops' knowledge but yourdops' further said that yourdops' morning yourdops' Looking into the boat and when the said John Widdale fell down to the best of yourdops' knowledge did see a small quantity of blood and water to the value of a spoonful or thereabouts and further yourdops' said not to go to the best of yourdops' knowledge but that yourdops' saw no other person upon the plantation but the prisoners at the bar and yourdops' said John Widdale

 Gilbert was not in his perfect senses by Reason of fits which had followed him for several years, and I having some discourses to him about a will which he had made to John Mills, to read him aloud it and he said he had made a will to John Mills, but it signified not for it was good for nothing and I advising him to prepare for his end and to make his peace with God and to be reconciled with his wife and he being Very foolish and Goss-ansey, I told him that if he had a mind to have the Sacrament Given to him that no minister would give it to him if he did Change his mind and likewise I asked him if he thought there was a Reposection or not and he said he did not know, and that he did not go to Church nor would not go to have any saying to him in his sickness nor at other times, did not care for it or ever would understand but it was his delight to be in the woods
