

82 one Row for 1799

Worcesterbrough
Horseshoebrough
Standly S. Gower
Mortice

Recorded among the Records of Richmond County North Carolina
Day of May 1799 Test Mr. Berkwith Clerk

April 4th 1799

Walter Smith

There being a dispute made between Daniel Will and Eliza both Wife by Word of Mouth taken within twenty years since after her departure out of this life from J. Whiting's house after which time Joseph Whiting said that Eliza both Will and her son had agreed with him that her share was that Daniel Will should be her sole heir and that she and that George Whiting should have her young son after Agatha Whiting said that Eliza both Will was saying that her share was that Daniel Will should be her sole heir and that George Whiting should have her young son after Eliza both Whiting said that Eliza both Will did say that her share was that Daniel Will should be her sole heir and that George Whiting should have her young son after.

At a Court held in and for Richmond County the Seventh Day of May 1799

Joseph W. Whiting
Agatha I. Whiting
Eliza both I. Whiting

Joseph Whiting & Agatha Whiting of the County of Richmond as magistrates County Clerk as per call that the words (and) in the above Will as the saying of Joseph were declared and published upon by the Court that the said Joseph was living the day of April 1799 and that he was at the same time a person of sound mind and memory
and that he was at the same time a person of sound mind and memory

Walter Smith