me: Richmond County to wit,

This day came before me one of his Majesties Justices of the peace for the said County Thomas Williams and Daniel Lightfoot and having been first sworn on the holy Evangelist of God the truth to say, Thomas Williams sayeth that on Monday the Seventh day of this Instant January the late Luke Milner who was then sick called to him this Deponent & said he wanted to make his will & desired that there shod be no Disturbance about what little Estate he had, But Desired that what Estate he had to dispose of might be Equally Divided Between his Mother, Brothers and Sisters & amongst his little sisters also meaning the two Girls his mother had by James McGindoe, Daniel Lightfoot sayeth that on the same day mentioned by the other Deponent Thomas Williams the said late Luke Milner called to him and said he wanted to make his will and Desired that there shod be no Disturbance about what little Estate he had, But Desired what Estate he had to Dispose me and one of my men who was then sick called to him this Deponent & said he wanted to make his will & desired that there shod be no Disturbance about what little Estate he had, But Desired that what Estate he had to dispose of might be Equally Divided Between his Mother Brothers and Sisters & amongst his little sisters also meaning the two girls his mother had by James M^cIndree, Daniel Lightfoot says th^t that on the same day mentioned by the other Deponent Thomas Williams the said late Luke Milner called to him and said he wanted to make his will and Desired that there shod be no Disturbance about what little Estate he had, But Desired what Estate he had to Dispose of might be Equally Divided between his brother & Sisters & amongst his Little Sisters also meaning the two girls his mother had by James M^cIndree, These Deponents declare he spoke such his last will in the house of James M^cIndree and in his last Sick ness & that they believed him to be in his perfect senses & of a Disposing memory to which they have hereunto
