Eason Hannan In the name of God Amen I Eason Hannan of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia having become weak of body but of sound and perfect mind do make this my last Will and Testament in the manner following that is to say First I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth to be decently buried and after all my just debts and funeral expenses are paid I devise and bequeath as follows To my beloved wife Mary Hannan I give the whole of the plantation on which I now live during his natural life and at his death I give it to the children of Abraham Hannan after paying to the heirs three in number of my daughter Jane Baker dec'd Fifty Dollars each and to the heirs of my daughter Elizabeth Hutchinson dec'd three in number fifty Dollars each and to my daughter Mary Ann Cooper One hundred and fifty Dollars none of which is to be paid until two years after my decease and the decease of my wife Mary Hannan having hearts for giving to my sons Thomas William John Eason and Edward fifty acres of land each as their full share of my estate both real and personal I also direct that my Executors sell so much of my land after the death of myself and my wife as will be sufficient to pay my debts and the Legacies above directed I also give to my wife Mary Hannan all my other Property of every kind to use and dispose of at her will and pleasure to carry this my last Will into full effect I do constitute and appoint my son Nelson

Hannan, and Abraham Hannan my Executors herein by revoking all former wills by me before made ratifying and conforming this and none other to be my last Will and Testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 5th of November 1842.

George W. Blain In the name of God, Amen, I George Washington Blain, of the County of Roanoke, & State of Virginia, being sick and weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory (for which I thank God) and calling to mind the uncertainty of human life, and being desirous to dispose of all such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with, I give and bequeath the same in manner following, that is to say, 1st I desire that all the perishable part of my estate be sold as soon as my Executor hereinafter named may deem most advisable after my decease, and out of the monies arising therefrom all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

I should the perishable part of my property prove insufficient for the above purposes, then I desire my Executor hereinafter named may pay out of the monies arising from the sale of my real estate (known by the name of the Bobtown Springs) and satisfy such of my just debts, as shall remain unpaid out of the sales of the perishable part of my estate.

2dly, I wish my part of the Bobtown Springs sold at such a price and at such a period as my Executor hereinafter named in consultation with my Brother James may think most fit and proper.

3dly, After the payment of my debts and funeral expenses, I give to my wife Catharine one third part of my Estate, both real and personal for and during the term of her natural life & after her decease, I give the same to my son James Callaway Blain.

4thly, I give to my son James Callaway Blain the balance of my Estate, both real and personal & which I wish to be managed by my Executor to the best advantage for his benefit.

5thly, All the rest of my estate, both real and personal, of what nature and kind soever it may be, not herein mentioned particularly disposed of, I desire one third may be given to my wife hereinbefore named, the balance to my son James Callaway. In the event of his death before his Mother, I desire all my Estate both real & personal to be given to my wife Catharine hereinbefore mentioned.

And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend George J. Taylor Executor of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other or former wills or testaments by me heretofore made. In witness whereof, I have signed to set my hand and affixed my seal, this 25th day of February in the year Eighteen hundred and forty three.
