John McCauley, Clerk.

Abraham Collins. I, Abraham Collins, of Marietta, Lancaster County, State of Penna, being of sound mind, memory and understanding do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

As to such estate as it hath pleased God to entrust me with I dispose of the same as follows, after all my just debts and expenses shall have been paid,

I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Elizabeth, such share and interest in my estate, real and personal, as she is entitled to receive under the intestate laws of this Commonwealth.

As to the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real and personal, I direct that the same be divided into seven equal shares or parts.

One part thereof I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter Mary Stuebel.

One part thereof to my daughter Alice Collins.

One part thereof I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter Emma Haldeman.

One part thereof I give, devise and bequeath to my daughter Ida Hegener.

One part thereof I give, devise and bequeath to my grand children Abraham Eby and Mary Eby.

One part thereof I give, devise and bequeath to my Executors hereafter named in trust for the use of my daughter Sarah Collins, to collect the interest and income therefrom, and at their discretion to pay or apply the said interest and income, and so much of the principal as may be necessary for the comfortable support of my said daughter Sarah during her life time, and after her death to distribute the said principal sum remaining in equal shares to and among my children then living.

One part thereof I give, devise and bequeath to my executors, hereafter named in trust for the use of my son Simon C. Collins, they to collect the interest and income therefrom, and at their discretion to pay and apply the said interest and income, and so much of the principal sum as may be necessary for the comfortable support of said son during his lifetime, and after his death to distribute the said principal sum then remaining in equal shares to and among my children then living.

Should any of my heirs be dissatisfied with this my last will, and contest it in any suit at law, such expense or expenses as may arise from such suit or suits, shall be deducted from the share or shares of those instituting such suit or suits.

I hereby direct and authorize my Executors, hereinbefore named, to sell my real estate as soon as conveniently may be done after my decease, and to convey the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof.

I hereby appoint G. Edw. Hegenauer and John H. Haldeman my executors of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I, Abraham Collins the testator have to this my last will set my hand and seal this fifth day of October 1886.

• Abraham Collins

• Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above-named Abraham Collins as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who have hereunto subscribed our names at his request as witnesses thereto, in the presence of the said testator and of each other.

• Amos H. Mylin.

• H. E. Slaymaker.

Lancaster County, 1886

On the 9 day of July, 1889, before me, the subscriber, personally appeared Amos H. Mylin and H. E. Slaymaker, the subscribing witnesses to the preceding Will, and on their solemn affirmations, did declare and say, that they were present and saw and heard Abraham Collins, the testator therein named, sign, seal, publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament, and that at the time of the doing thereof, they was of sound and well disposing mind, memory and understanding, to the best of their knowledge, observation and belief.

Gustave A. Sedon. In the name of God Amen. I Gustave A. Sedon, of Roanoke County and State of Virginia, being Old and infirm but of sound and perfect mind and memory, and considering the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, do make and appoint this my last will and testament in the manner and form following. First and principally, I commit my soul to God in humble hope of its future happiness and my body to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial -

2d I request that my funeral & burial expenses shall be paid and all my just debts should I owe any at the time of my death.

3d After all my just debts are paid, I bequeath to my beloved wife Catherine Sedon all my entire Estate both real and personal of every description whatsoever -

4th I appoint my beloved wife Catherine Sedon, my Executor to carry this my last will into effect. Ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament -

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand seal this third day of November, one thousand Eight hundred and Ninety,

Gustave A. Sedon.
