David Myers

At Roanoke County Court, August Term 1881.

A writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David Myers deceased, was produced in Court by John O. Myers, the Executor therein named, and there being no subscribing witness thereto, William P. Roberts and Lewis Zirkle were sworn and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the testator's hand-writing, and verily believe the said writing and the names thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the testator's own hand. And another paper writing purporting to be a codicil to said Will was presented in Court by the said John O. Myers and there being no subscribing witness thereto, the said William P. Roberts and Lewis Zirkle being duly sworn, deposed that they verily believe the said last mentioned writing and the names thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the testator's own hand. Whereupon the said writings are ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said David Myers deceased.
