

or twenty acres with the iron ore to be surveyed of and to be sold private if it can be sold at a reasonable price if not sold private to be sold to the highest bidder sell the iron ore first and then sell the remainder of the ~~farm~~ and then sell both together and the way they bring the most to confirm the sale, after my death I want all of my first ~~deable~~ to be paid it is my will that my heirs all to receive an equal portion of my estate in the first place to make them all equal with what they have gotten heretofore and then if there is any more to be divided it an equal between them as my Book will show what each one has received heretofore

Charles W. Hartman now die his heir his portion Henry W. Hartman James T. Hartman Lucy J. Washam Michael C. Hartman B. P. Hartman each one to receive his or her portion it is my will that my son J. T. Hartman to be as my administrator and if he cannot serve for my heirs to select some suitable person to act in his place as witness herunto I set my hand and seal this day and year first above written

Witnesses

Michael T. Hartman (init)

At Roanoke County Court October 21st 1901.

A writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Michael T. Hartman, deceased, was produced in Court, and thereupon, J. M. Hatis was sworn and deposed that he is well acquainted with the Testators hand writing, and verily believes the said writing and the name thereto subscribed, to have been wholly written by the Testators own hand, whereupon, the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the last will and Testament of Michael T. Hartman, deceased.

A Copy from the records of Court.

C. D. Denik, Clerk.

Andrew Jackson

Salem Roanoke Co. Va. July th 16 1896

I feeling this as i do i wright this to surtyfye that my wife shell have this house and lot and use it to her owne pleasuer.

Andrew Jackson writer.

Smithy Jackson my wife

At Roanoke County Court November Term 1901.

The last will & Testament of Andrew Jackson, deceased, was produced in Court, and thereupon, Meredith Walker & Anna Smithy Jackson were sworn and deposed that they are well acquainted with the Testators hand writing and verily believe the said writing and the name thereto subscribed to have been wholly written by the Testators own hand, whereupon, the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the last will and Testament of Andrew Jackson, deceased.

A Copy from the records of Court.

C. D. Denik, Clerk.