

Michael A. Hartman I Mike Hartman of the County of Roanoke + State of Virginia do make + constitute this my last Will + testament 1 I will that after my death that all of my just Debts be paid 2 I will that my Daughter Francis Ferris shall have all of my real estate to do as she may think best during her natural term of life 3 at her death I will that all of my real estate be equally divided between my two grand children James Lee Ferris + his sister Bettie Ferris 4 I will that my personal property be sold 5 I will that my Daughter Sarah Ellen Dorse shall have out of my Property five dollars to do as she thinks best with 6 I will that my Daughter Kate Riggway shall have fifty Dollars out of my estate 7 I will that my two grand children Nancy Ann Weaver + William May be paid five Dollars each one of them 8 I will that my grandson Juball M. S. May be paid one hundred Dollars 9 I will that if my ~~dear~~ wife shall live longer than I do that my Daughter Francis Ferris shall be bound to clothe + maintain her out of my real estate I further will that after the proceeds of my personal property has been paid out to my children + grand children per rate that my Daughter Francis Ferris shall have four years to pay each legatee what I have willed them

Witness my hand and seal
 M. A. Hartman

Witness
 W. H. Muse
 H. P. Graham.

At Roanoke County Court, October Term 1889.

The last Will and Testament of Michael A. Hartman deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of William H. Muse and H. P. Graham, subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon the said Will is admitted to probate.

A copy from the records of Court -

Teste W. H. C. Clerk

Andrew Reynolds In the name of God Amen I Andrew Reynolds of Roanoke County Virginia, Being advanced in years and informed of sound and perfect memory and mind and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof do make and appoint this my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following, to wit, First and principally - I commit my soul to God in humble hopes of its future happiness, and my body to the Earth to be Buried in decent Christian burial.

I will to my beloved wife Rejannah Reynolds her full dower rights in all of my Estate both Real and personal property - whatever there may be left after my just debts and burial expenses is paid for her to have and hold so long as she lives I will to my wife to ~~my wife~~ my black horse called (George) and one cow of her own choice The house property belongs to my wife Individually she has it here with her I hold no claim to it its her own. I give the horse and cow to my wife in lieu of some money she paid for me out of her own money. I give to my wife all of my household and kitchen furniture for her to have and hold so long as she lives. I also give to my wife wheat corn and provisions enough to last her one year & feed and grain for to feed her horse and cow during the winter. I will to my five children each one of them Five Dollars to be paid out of the proceeds of my personal property in Twelve months after my death by my Executor. I will to my Grand son Henry Stover and his heirs, my farm I now live and reside upon, reserving my wife down so long as she lives. After my wife's death her dower lands fall due to said Henry Stover I also will to said Henry Stover & his heirs all the remainder of my personal property whatever there may be left of or my just debts is paid.

And lastly I do appoint Henry Stover sole Executor of this my last will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 29th day of October 1889.

Signed sealed and Acknowledged } Andrew ^{his} Reynolds in presence of
Daniel Kittinger
Elijah H. Page
Elijah Page, Jr.

At Boone County Court December Term 1889.

The last Will and Testament of Andrew Reynolds deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Daniel Kittinger and Elijah Page the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon the said Will is admitted to probate.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste W. M. McAulley Clerk

John T. Davis. I make my last will in the following form and conditions, viz:

It is my wish for Camillus Christian to act as my Executor; and not to be required by the Court to give security; that he shall collect all debts due and pay all just claims against me; should there then be any money in hand to transfer it to the trustee hereinafter named.

I give and bequeath my whole estate both real and personal that I now possess or may hereafter acquire to Camillus Christian security not to be required of him; to be held by him in trust for the sole and separate use and benefit of my two daughters Mary Davis Christian, and Margaret C. Davis to be equally divided between them, the married portion should there be any, to be invested in productive real estate or