

to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in the presence of each other have hereunto affixed our names as witnesses.

J. Woodrum
A. Reynolds

At Roanoke County Court, March Term 1878.

The last Will and Testament of David Ferguson Sr. late of this County, deceased, was this day fully proved by the oaths of Jordan Woodrum and Andrew Reynolds, subscribing witnesses thereto, and was thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court Test Wm. McCauley, Clerk.

D. A. Morgan.

Roanoke Co. Va.

March 15th 1878.

Being now of sound mind and calling to remembrance the uncertainty of life I now make this my will and testament, revoking all others which I have heretofore made.

1st I give into the hands of my wife, Laura J. Morgan all my estate, real and personal, including my tract of land in Roanoke, my tract in Botetourt Co Va, all my lands in the State of Texas, all my stock, farming utensils, household and Kitchen furniture and all bonds and other evidences of debts due me at the time of my demise or may thereafter be due me.

2^d I direct that she shall, as soon as may be after my demise, advertise all my lands in Va and make sale of them, on such terms as she and her advisers may consider best, and subsequently all my personal estate.

3^d I direct that all moneys as soon as collected shall be invested as follows:

1st Two thirds of the gross amount in land in the State of South Carolina and one third in prompt interest paying securities.

4th I direct that my Texas lands shall be sold as soon as my aforesaid wife Laura J. Morgan, and her advisers shall consider best and the proceeds thereof also invested as directed in the 3^d paragraph of this will.

5th I direct that my wife, aforesaid, shall pay to each one of my children on reaching the age of twenty one years such portion of my estate as she and her advisers may think fair and equal, so that each one may receive the same amt in value, including the amounts paid respectively for their education; and One Thousand Dollars has already been paid for the education of my daughter Mary J. Morgan.

6th I direct that all my children shall be respectably, but not expensively, educated from the interest and other proceeds of my invested estate I appoint my wife, Laura J. Morgan, sole Executrix, of this my last Will and Testament, and request that she shall not be required to give security in this State or in South Carolina where I have directed her to make investments.

I request my cousin Rev. J. P. Mealing to act as her chief advisor.

In the event of the death or marriage of my wife, before all of my children arrive at the age of Twenty One years, I direct that my estate shall be administered according to the laws of the land.

I request that my wife will seek the advice of my friends Smith Petty and Lewis Huff of this County in all matters of business while she shall remain in Va.

Teste

D. A. Morgan

Charles L. Cocke
J. H. Coon
J. S. Tompkins

At Roanoke County Court, April Term 1898.

The last Will and Testament of Dempsey A. Morgan, late of this County deceased was this day, fully proved by the oaths of Charles L. Cocke, and John H. Coon, subscribing witnesses thereto, and was thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste

Wm. McLaughlin, Clerk.

Peter Westy Sen.

In the name of God, Amen.

I Peter Westy Sen. of Roanoke County and State of Virginia, do make this my last Will and Testament in following manner revoking all other Wills heretofore made by me.

I will, devise and authorize my Executor hereinafter named after my death, to sell so much of my personal property as to pay all my just debts and burial expenses, but at the same time said Executor shall consult the choice and convenience of my wife Frances Westy, as to what she can best spare.

I furthermore will, devise and bequeath to my wife Frances Westy the prudent and careful use of all my personal and real property or estate during her natural life time. Said Executor shall see that my wife Frances Westy take as good care of said property personal and real as possible, not allowing the destruction of timber or anything else that can be avoided.

I furthermore devise will and bequeath that after the death of my wife Frances Westy all my property left personal and real shall be sold to the best advantage and equally divided among my children.