

The above instrument consisting of one sheet was now here subscribed D. O. the testator in the presence of each of us and was declared by him to be in sound mind and memory and he at his request sign our names hereto as attesting witnesses

G. J. Mitchell
J. B. Seyers

At Roanoke County Court, September Term 1876.

The last Will and Testament of David Owens deceased was proved by the oaths of George J. Mitchell and John B. Seyers subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste

Wm. McCauley, Clerk.

I, Loren J. Anderson of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but of feeble health, do make this my last will and testament.

I give and bequeath to Amanda Shaver one dollar, and to my son John Loren one dollar, and to my son Theophilus B. Loren I give and bequeath the whole remainder of my estate of every kind and description whatsoever after the payment of all my just debts, and provided that he is to take care of and provide for his mother as long as she may live - and her comfortable support is intended by me to be a charge upon the property hereby bequeathed.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 28th day of July 1876.

Witness
Lewis H. Arthur
Jas. W. Eller

Anderson J. ^{his} Loren.
marks

At Roanoke County Court, December Term 1876.

The last Will and Testament of Anderson J. Loren deceased was this day fully proved by the oaths of Lewis H. Arthur and Jas. W. Eller subscribing witnesses thereto and was thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste

Wm. McCauley, Clerk.

I, David Sloan of Roanoke County Virginia being advanced in age but of sound mind do make this my last will in the manner and form hereafter stated

1st I direct that all my just debts if I should owe any at my Death and Funeral expenses be paid
2nd I bequeath to my wife all the Bedding of every Description and all the furniture that she got of her mother and all the provisions of every kind that may be on hand and the crops that may be sown or planted and to have the Land under her entire control during her life and after her Death whenever my executor may think best sell the tract of Land altogether without any Division upon such time and terms as he may think best and pay the proceeds out to my Heirs equally charging them that has received with what they have received charging my son in law George Pogue with Three hundred Dollars and Elijah Pogue with one hundred & Sixty two dollars & fifty cents All are to be made equal of my children Ellen Pogue Nancy Ellen Mary Pogue Charles Sloan Sarah Griso and the three children of Jacob Sloan's heirs Mary Catharine Tanner and James One hundred Dollars is to be retained in the hands of my Executor first of all for James Sloan Jr and he is to have the Bed that his uncle James Sloan left her when his grandmother thinks proper to give it to him And all my personal property not mentioned my executor will sell at any time he may think best leaving such as my wife may need And to carry this my last will into effect I appoint my son in law William Griso my executor And no security required Witness the following signatures and seal the 8th day of February 1876
Witness
S. H. C. Greenwood David Sloan ^{his} mark
H. Landrum (Seal)

1st Roanoke County Court, December Term 1876
The last Will and Testament of David Sloan late of this County deceased, was this day fully proved by the oaths of Samuel H. C. Greenwood and H. Landrum, subscribing witnesses thereto, and was then ordered to be recorded.
at copy from the records of Court
Test. Wm McCauley, Clerk.

Joseph Dickwinter of Roanoke County Virginia do make the following as my last Will and Testament revoking all others.
Item 1st I direct that all my just debts be paid by my Executor herein after made.
Item 2nd After the payment of my debts as aforesaid I give and bequeath to my six grand-children the children of my deceased daughter Nancy Ann Heath first wife of Patrick