interest) for his education as it may be needed. If my Grandson James A. should die before this money is expended by my Executor for his education, then I will and desire that this money, or any of it that may be left, shall revert to the parties named in the sixth item of this will. Item 5th I will to my sons David Gibson, William Dillon, Edward M. Jr., Baker H. and Robert Armstrong, the sum of five dollars each, to be paid out of my estate.

Item 6th I will and bequeath the residue of my estate to be equally divided between my daughter Fannie S. June B. Nettles and my son Charles May M. Armstrong. There is a paid up policy of Insurance on my life in the name of and for the benefit of my late wife Louisa S. Armstrong for $5,000. which now that she has died, goes to the benefit of her heirs as set forth in the policy.

Item 7th I hereby constitute and appoint my son Robert Armstrong Executor of this my last Will & Testament, and request the Circuit or County Court for Roanoke County to permit the said Robert Armstrong to qualify as my Executor, without requiring from him, any security on his bond.

Item 8th, This Will is all in my own handwriting, and I again publish and declare it to be my last Will and Testament.

Witness my hand & seal this 27th day of August 1857.

At Roanoke County Court April Term 1890

A writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Edward M. Armstrong Esq. deceased, was this day produced in Court by Robert Armstrong the Executor therein named, and there being no subscribing witness thereto, J. H. Chalmers, G. H. Handbrough and D. L. Armstrong were sworn, and severally deposed that they are well acquainted with the Testator's hand writing, and verily believe the said hand writing and the name thereunto subscribed, to be wholly written by the Testator's own hand.

Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said Edward M. Armstrong Esq. deceased.

A copy from the records of Court.
