

Shanks, J. Helen Shanks, Anna P. White and Lucy N. Beller I give one of the eight divisions of my lands above provided to be made. I direct that the portion of the land which my daughter Martha E. Shanks shall take be held by her to her sole and separate use in fee simple. Except as to the conveyance which I have authorized Fanny Penn to make to two of my sons if she shall see fit to do so. I direct that the lands held by all my daughters be to their sole and separate use vesting in my married daughters only a life estate with the fee simple to their childrens such fee simple to vest in the children immediately on the death of the mother, and if either of my children die childless being at the time of the death seized of any of the lands herein devised. I direct that the lands of such decedent descend in fee simple and equally to the surviving children of all of daughters.

Sixth. I give my cows and calves to Fanny Penn, my gold watch to Lucy N. Beller, my writing desk to J. Helen Shanks, my picture of _____ and my Majolica vases to Espes White Shanks, my motto to Maria L. Shanks, my table cloth and one dozen napkins given to me by Mr. Somerville to Martha E. Shanks, to Ann P. White my glass spoon stand, Majolica cream pot and butter dish to Mary B. Read the white counterpane and bureau cover made and given to me by my mother. All other things I have I leave with ^{Fanny Penn with} written instructions as to their disposal.

I appoint _____ the Executor of this will.

Done this 13th day of April 1887.

Witness

Mary B. White

B. Pitzer

R. D. Martin

At Roanoke County Court June Term 1887.

The last Will and Testament of Mrs. Mary B. White deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of B. Pitzer and R. D. Martin, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon the said Will is admitted to Probate

A copy from the Records of Court.

Teste: W^m M^r Canby, Clerk

Elizabeth Savinder. In the name of God Amen I Elizabeth Savinder, of Roanoke County and State of Virginia, being old and infirm, but of sound and perfect mind and memory and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof do make and appoint this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following to wit: First & principally I commit my soul to God in humble hopes of its future happiness, and my Body to the Earth to be buried in Decent Christian burial.

First of all. My funeral, and, burial expenses must be paid out of my personal property is my request.

Second. I will and bequeath unto Christian Wertz one high bedstead, and bedding necessary to Equip a bed with bed clothes in proportion to my stock of bed clothes not to be selected by extremely picking out of the best bed clothes.

Thirdly I will And bequeath unto my nephew Charles Savinder the remainder of my personal property whatsoever there may be left after my burial Expenses, and debts are paid if there be any.

And lastly I do appoint Charles Savinder, Sole Executor of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have here unto set my hand seal this 30th day of May 1887, signed and acknowledged and sealed.

In presence of
John L. Harris
Elisha M. Harris
Elijah Poage

Elizabeth ^{her} X Savinder Seal.
mark

At Roanoke County Court July Term 1887.

The last Will and Testament of Mrs. Elizabeth Savinder deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of John L. Harris, Elisha M. Harris and Elijah Poage, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon the said Will is admitted to Probate.

A copy from the Records of Court.

Teste:

Wm. McCauley, Clerk

Susan Noffsinger. Fearing the uncertainty of life and the near approach of death and being of a sound mind I Susan Noffsinger do hereby make my last will and testament.

First I will that all my just debts be paid.

Second I will that after my death that my daughter Sarah E. Hartbarger shall have one good bed and Lora Lee Hartbarger shall have $25⁰⁰ twenty five dollars.

Third I will that William B. Noffsinger my son shall have all of my estate both real and personal except the things mentioned above to be his, do with as he may think proper and I appoint William B. Noffsinger my Administrator to qualify without security.

I do hereby revoke all former wills made by me and make this my last will and testament in proof of the same I do hereby set my hand and