

seal this May 21st 1887.

Witness

Benjamin ^{his} ~~x~~ Boon
^{mark}

Samuel L. Boon

Susan ^{her} ~~x~~ Roffeinger ^{mark}

At Roanoke County Court July Term 1887.

The last Will and Testament of Mrs. Susan Roffeinger deceased, was this day produced in court and proved according to law by the oaths of Benjamin Boon and Samuel L. Boon, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon the said will is admitted to Probate.

A copy from the Records of Court

Teste:

P. H. McCaull, Clerk.

Elvira H. Moorman

I Elvira H. Moorman do make and publish this as my last Will and Testament.

On consideration of my love and affection for my niece and adopted daughter Elvira Moorman Scott and as a small recompense for her ever dutiful and affectionate care and attention to me during my old age and long illness. I will and bequeath to her all ^{my} estate of what kind soever, and confirm to her the gift I have heretofore made to her of the bond of the city of Staunton, Va. for one thousand dollars, and also confirm to her the desire of my late beloved husband as expressed in his will, that she shall have all the residue of my income not expended by me during my life and that may not be necessary to pay any debts I may owe at my death including my burial expenses, and any costs of administration on my estate, also all the personal property of every kind I may die possessed of, including the furniture and household effects as my late ^{beloved} husband devised. One half of the surplus of my income not expended by me as aforesaid shall be for the use and benefit of her daughter Eddie Herndon Scott; I desire that the large spoons five in number and the small spoons five in number and the parlor clock be given to my step-son Robert B. Moorman. the spoons having been his mother's.

I will to Anna Grace Buford one bureau and to Elvira Luck one bedstead and my breast pin with the likeness of my husband for setting to Mrs Martha Buford.

I appoint my friend R. H. Logan as Executor of this my last Will & Testament and desire he be allowed to qualify without giving security. Witness my hand & seal this the 5th day of July 1887.

James Chalmer, witness

F. C. Burdette

E. H. Moorman

At Roanoke County Court July Term 1887.

The last Will and Testament of Mrs. Elvira H. Moorman deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of James Chalmers and F. L. Burdette, the subscribing witnesses thereto; and thereupon the said will is admitted to Probate.

A copy from the Records of Court.

Teste:

P. H. McCaull, Clerk.

Charles Smith. In the name of God Amen: I Charles Smith knowing the certainty of death and the uncertainty of life, and being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make this my last will and testament:

1st I give and bequeath to my wife, Franky, my entire property both real and personal to have and to hold during her natural life, and if necessary, in the opinion of my Executor hereinafter named, I empower him to sell the same and expend the proceeds for her support, as in his judgment is best, after her death I direct that my Executor, distribute what may be left of my property and if my lot has not been previously sold by him, to sell it, and distribute it equally among my children after paying himself for his trouble out of it, and I hereby appoint Wm W. Brand my sole Executor to carry out the provisions of this will.

July 18. 1887.

Charles ^{his} Smith makes

Signed in our presence, and in the presence of each other this 15th day of July 1887

M. F. Brickey

Houston Archer

Wm W. Brand

At Roanoke County Court September Term 1887.

The last will and Testament of Charles Smith deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of M. F. Brickey, Houston Archer and W. W. Brand the subscribing witnesses thereto; and thereupon the said will is admitted to probate.

A copy from the Records of Court.

P. H. McCaull, Clerk

G. B. Board. In the name of God, Amen.

I, G. B. Board of the County of Roanoke & State of Virginia being of sound mind and disposing memory but recognising the uncertainty of life do make this my last Will and Testament -

First at the time of my death I commend my soul to God