

Mrs Fanny A. Holley.

I will my daughter-in-law Sue L. Holley the use benefit, control and disposal of all my property which I now possess and all that I inherit or acquire after the writing of this will. Given under my hand this the 28th day of March 1887.

Fannie A. Holley.

At Roanoke County Court May Term 1887.

A writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Fanny A. Hawley deceased, was produced in court, and there being no subscribing witnesses thereto, Eugene Bush was sworn, and deposed that he is well acquainted with the Testatrix's hand-writing, and verily ^{believed} the said writing with the name thereto subscribed to be wholly written by the Testatrix's hand.

Whereupon the said writing is ordered to be recorded as the true last Will and Testament of the said Fannie A. Hawley deceased.

A copy from the Records of Court.

Teste: W^m M. Canby, clerk.

Mrs Mary B. White.

I Mary B. White of Port Lewis, in the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia do make this my last Will and testament.

First I give to my beloved husband Alexander White for and during his natural life all my property both real and personal not herein otherwise disposed of, the same to be held by him for life and not in any event to be subjected to any debts for which he may be now or hereafter liable, I desire that the taxes accruing from year to year be paid first of all out of the products of the farm.

Second. After the death of my said husband I direct that my lands be divided, (by three disinterested commissioners to be appointed by agreement of those of my children to whom I devise the lands) into eight equal parts having reference in such division to quantity and quality, but the dwelling house and other contiguous buildings including the kitchen, office, stable, barn &c. shall not be estimated at all in such valuations.

Third. I direct that of the eight divisions so made, three of them including that one on which the said buildings are situated be assigned to my daughter Fanny Penn which said three divisions so allotted to my said daughter Fanny Penn shall adjoin each other.

Fourth. To my sons Samuel, James Oliver and William Lewis I give one dollar each to be paid to them by my Executor. My daughter Fanny Penn White is at liberty to give to my sons James, Oliver and William Lewis in the manner she may deem best a part of the lands devised to her.

Fifth. To each of my daughters, Mary B. Read, Martha E.
