Georgiana Peel

I, Georgiana Peel of Salem, Roanoke County, Virginia, do make and publish this my last will and Testament;

First, I direct that all my just debts be paid.

Second, I give, devise and bequeath unto William Charles Peel, and Alfred Henry Peel, all of my property, to have and to hold upon the following trust; that said trustees, William Charles Peel, and Alfred Henry Peel, shall hold the said property herein devised and bequeathed to them, during their natural lives, in trust for my children Alfreda Adelaide Marion Peel, and George Starky Talbot Peel, and any other children that may be born to me after the execution of this will. The said trustees William Charles Peel and Alfred Henry Peel to have absolute control and management of the said trust property, to be managed and used by them to the best interests of my said children, and they are hereby empowered to sell all or any part or portions of said property at any time when in their judgment it is to the best interest of my said children so to do, and reinvest the proceeds of said sale of said trust property, in other property, to be held by said trustees upon the same trusts as the property herein bequeathed, and devised in trust is held.

The said trustees shall after collecting and receiving the profits, issues, interests and increase of my said property, annually, shall apply the same or so much as is necessary, after defraying the annual expenses of said trust, to the nurture, support and education of my said children, and as I am desirous that my said children shall have the most liberal education from travel, as well as scholastic training, and that they should receive as much of the time and attention of the said trustees as possible, I direct that the said trustees William Charles Peel and Alfred Henry Peel, accompany my said children when travelling or sojourning in other countries as well as the United States, and that all the expenses of said trustees while so travelling or sojourning, be paid out of the trust property, as well as all other expenses contracted by them in looking after the interests of said trust.

Witness W. D. Armstrong

Georgiana Peel

Marion Chandler

The said trust fund after the death of said trustees shall rest in my said children in equal proportions, but at any time after either of them become of age, and the said trustees think fit, and that it is in their opinion to their best interests so to do, they are empowered to convey all or any portion of said child's share in said trust property in fee simple.

The said William Charles Peel, is hereby empowered to appoint another person to act as trustee, along with him and the said Alfred Henry Peel, whenever in his opinion it is best to do so, and said trustee thus appointed shall have the same power in the management of said trust property, as are vested in the said trustees herein appointed by the provisions of this will, except that he shall not accompany said children when travelling or sojourning in other places, and he shall not act for a longer period than the lives of the within named trustees, William Charles Peel, and Alfred Henry Peel.

The said trustees are not to encroach upon or use any of the principal of the trust fund, for the support, nurture and education, of my said children, unless the profits, issues and increase of said trust property be inadequate to support and educate as above set forth, but if said profits, issues and increase, is not sufficient to so support, nurture and educate, then said trustees are hereby empowered to sell and dispose of such a portion of the principal of said trust fund, as will yield the said profits, issues, and increase, be sufficient to pay the said expenses for the current year.
