

And at Roanoke County Court - March Term 1877.

The last Will and Testament of Henry S. Webster deceased, which at the January Term last of this Court was partly proved, was this day fully proved by the oath of Jordan Woodrum the other subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon it is ordered that the said Will be admitted to record.

A copy from the records of Court -

Teste Wm McCauley, Clerk.

Frederick Rhodes. I Frederick Rhodes of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia, do make this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I give and bequeath to my wife Eliza Ann all the property real and personal of which I may be seized and possessed at my death, to be used and enjoyed by her during her natural life, and to be disposed of by her, at her death to our children.

I have purchased a tract of land containing about eight acres and lying North of the Town of Salem, from Benjamin Dyerle, and which has never been conveyed to me by deed. My son George Thomas has paid $100. of the purchase money for said land and has agreed to pay the balance of said purchase money due on same. In the event of his paying said balance of purchase money I hereby direct that the said Benjamin Dyerle do convey to my said wife Eliza Ann one half of said tract of land and to my said son George Thomas the other half thereof. If my said son does not pay said balance of purchase money then I direct that the said Benjamin Dyerle do convey to my said wife and son such interests in said land as may belong to me and my said son by reason of the respective payments made by us of the said purchase money, said conveyance to my wife to be subject to the payment of my debts as hereinafter provided.

I direct that my Executor, hereinafter named shall, if it is necessary to do so in order to discharge the debts of my estate, first sell my interest in said tract of eight acres of land - and if the proceeds of the same shall not be sufficient to discharge the whole of my indebtedness, then he shall sell to the best advantage - so much of the lot on which my house stands, in the Town of Salem, as may be necessary, - but he is to sell the portion lying on the Northern side of said lot.

It is my desire and request that my son John Henry and my daughter Mrs Lavinia S. McCauley do have their homes, if it is their desire, with my said wife, during their lives.

I hereby constitute and appoint William McCauley, Executor of this my last Will and Testament.

Given under my hand and seal this third day of May 1877.

J. W. Palmer
J. C. Bittle 3 witnesses.

Frederick ^{his} Rhodes ^{mark} (seal)

At Roanoke County Court - May Term 1877.

The last will and Testament of Frederick Rhodes, late of this County, deceased, was this day fully proved by the oaths of James W. Palmer and Thomas C. Bittle subscribing witnesses thereto, and was thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A Copy from the records of Court.
Teste, Wm McCauley, Clerk.

William Watts.

1 I, William Watts, of the County of Roanoke & State
2 of Virginia, do make & publish this writing as & for 3 my last Will & Testament, hereby revoking & cancelling 4 all other Wills or Papers purporting to be Wills, written or 5 executed by me.
6 I give to my son John Allen Watts all of the property
7 of every sort & description, real - personal & mixed, 8 which I may own at my death, subject to the 9 payment of my Debts & the following Legacies - 10 1st To my servant Henry Langhorne I give one 11 thousand dollars, to be paid to him by my Execu-12 tors, out of the first available funds, after the 13 payment of my Debts - Also I give to my servant
14 Lewis Beemill two hundred & fifty dollars, to be 15 paid to him as the foregoing sum is paid to Henry - 16 2nd I direct that my two old servants Edmund
17 Rideout & Nannie, his wife, shall be comfortably
18 maintained & cared for out of my Estate
19 during their lives & shall be decently buried - 20 This I have no doubt my son would do of 21 his own accord, but others might not, in the 22 event of his death - My other servants are able to provide 23 I appoint my two Brothers in Law, Judge William 24 Robertson & Dr Francis Corrie, my Executors
25 & also the Guardians of my son, John Allen Watts 26 & direct that no security shall be required of them
27 by the Court, in either capacity or Trust, my Estate
28 being ample for the payment of all my Debts -
29 I hope they will accept both Trusts & I authorize them