

to her and her heirs for ever. 3rd I hereby nominate and appoint James E. Day, Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this the 18 day of October 1876.

Katharine L. Murry

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator Katharine L. Murry as and for her last Will and testament, in presence of us, who in her presence at her request, and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

W. H. Martin

James E. Houbert

James E. Day

At Roanoke County Court, April Term 1890.

The Last Will and Testament of Katharine Murry deceased was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oath of W. H. Martin, James E. Day, and James E. Houbert subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Enter

Wm. McHenry Clark

George Earst Sr.

I George Earst Sr. of the County of Roanoke in the State of Virginia do make this my last Will and Testament first it is my desire that all my just debts and Burial expenses be paid. 1st I bequeath to my beloved wife Mary J. Lockett my entire estate both real and personal of every description during her life and after her death the property is to be equally divided between my children by sale or whatever way they may think best for all first charging my son Joseph Taylor with ($1500) Fifteen hundred dollars and Jacob Benjamin with Eight hundred dollars and Forest J. with Eight hundred dollars and my son Jack with Eight hundred dollars and before there is any division I bequeath to my two granddaughters Lucy Lusk Linckhoyer and Bessy Mand Linckhoyer One hundred dollars each it being due them from their great grandfather Linckhoyer and if any of my children is dead before the division of my estate their children is to have their share.

I appoint William J. Lockett my Executor to carry this my last Will and Testament into Effect given under my hand and seal this 23 day of March 1889.

Witness

S. H. C. Greenwood

D. A. Brumbaugh

George Earst Sr.

At Roanoke County Court, July Term 1890.

The last Will and Testament of George Garst Sr. deceased, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of E. H. C. Greenwood and David A. Brumbaugh subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court

Teste W. McCauley Clerk

D R R over the bank

Margaret M. Johnston

Salem Va July 20th 1890

In the Name of God Amen, I Margaret Johnston being conscious of approaching dissolution, but of a sound mind, do make & publish this my last Will & Testament revoking all others. First, I wish my body interred in the family burial ground in a christian-like manner.

Second, I give & bequeath to my daughter Bettie B. Johnston my house & lot in the Town of Salem Va, & desire my daughter Maria, to have a home in said house as long as she lives single, & should she my daughter Maria ever marry, then in that event, she is to have no interest whatsoever, in the house & lot aforementioned. 3rd All my household & kitchen furniture of every description, I give jointly to my two daughters Bettie B. & Maria A. Johnstons. 4th I give & bequeath to my daughter Helen G. Tinsley one thousand Dollars to be paid her in cash. 5th all other property both real & personal, Bonds &c. I give & bequeath to my three daughters Bettie B. Helen G. Tinsley & Maria Johnston to be equally divided between them. Lastly I hereby appoint my daughter Bettie B. Johnston my Executrix with full powers to carry out this my last Will & Testament.

Witness J. J. Shanks

Oscar Wiley.

M. M. Johnston.

At Roanoke County Court August Term 1890.

The last Will and Testament of Mrs. Margaret M. Johnston, deid, was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of J. J. Shanks and Oscar Wiley, subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon ordered to be recorded. And thereupon Bettie B. Johnston, the Executrix therein named, who made oath thereto and together with Maria A. Johnston and Helen G. Tinsley, her securities (who severally qualified as to their sufficiency) entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Ten Thousand Dollars, conditioned according to law, certificate is granted the said Bettie B. Johnston for obtaining a probate of said will in due form.

A copy from the Records of Court,

Teste:

W. McCauley, Clerk.