

M. Horner.

I, George Moisley Horner, of Salem, Virginia, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do make this my last will and Testament. I direct that all my just debts be paid as soon as possible. I give, devise and bequeath, absolutely, unto my wife, Elizabeth Mary Withers Horner, formerly of Bath, England, and now of Salem, Virginia, all my estate and affects real and personal, that I may die possessed.

I nominate and appoint my wife, the said Elizabeth Mary Withers Horner, to be the Executrix of this my last will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have herewith subscribed my name, this twenty fourth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety seven, at Salem, in the County of Roanoke, and state of Virginia.

George, Moisley, Horner (initialed)

Signed, sealed published and delivered, by the above named George Moisley Horner and by him declared to be his last will and Testament in the presence of us, who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other, have herewith subscribed our names as witnesses.

M. T. Ruthrauff, Salem Virginia

F. H. Chalmers, Salem Va

At Roanoke County Court February Term 1898.

The last Will and Testament of George Moisley Horner was this day produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of W. T. Ruthrauff & Frank H. Chalmers, subscribing witnesses thereto, who testified that the said will was wholly in the hand-writing of testator and signed by him, and is therefore, ordered to be recorded, a proper certificate showing the death of said Horner having been produced.

A Copy from the records of Court.

Teste: - M. Griffin, Clerk.

Alex. Anderson.

In the name of God, Amen, I Alexander Anderson of Salem, Roanoke County, Virginia, do make this my last will and Testament as follows, after all of my just debts and the funeral expenses have been paid.

1. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Lottie Booker Anderson the lower North room and all the furniture the room contained at my death with ingress and egress through the building which has a passage or hall, one sixth of the lot I now own in the town of Salem fronting on Water Street and being the centre of the front of the lot.

2. I give and bequeath unto my son Joseph Pearl Anderson, the upstairs of the Northern room and one sixth of the lot in the town of Salem now owned by me to be laid off in the Northwest corner of said land.

3. I give bequeath and devise unto my daughter Jennie Calaforo and Henry Calaforo and their heirs, the North-eastern corner of the lot which I
