

At Roanoke County Court, March 22nd, 1893:

This day there was produced in Court a copy of a paper purporting to be the true last Will and Testament of Abraham Collins, deceased, late of Lancaster County, State of Pennsylvania, and also copies of the evidence adduced as to the validity of said Will, and of the record of the Register of Lancaster County, in said State, admitting to probate the said paper as the true and genuine last Will and Testament of the said Abraham Collins, deceased, duly attested by George S. Meyer, Register of Wills for said County and State, under his seal of office, and certified to by J. P. Livingston, Presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court and Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace for said County, attested in due form. And it appearing to this Court, from the inspection of the copy of said Will and said record, that the said Will was proved in the said Court of Common Pleas &c, for the County of Lancaster, in the State of Pennsylvania to have been so executed as to be a valid will of lands in this State by the law thereof. On the motion of _____, it is ordered that the said paper writing be admitted to probate as the last Will & Testament of the said Abraham Collins, deceased.

A copy from the Records of Court.

Teste:-

(Wm McBailey, Clerk.)

Justanus A. Sedon. In the name of God Amen. I Justanus A Sedon, of Roanoke County and State of Virginia, being Old and infirm but of sound and perfect mind and memory, and considering the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, do make and appoint this my last will and testament in the manner and form following - (to wit) First and principally, I commit my soul to God in humble hopes of its future happiness and my body to the earth to be buried in decent christian burial -

2^d I request that my funeral & burial expenses shall be paid and all my just debts should I owe any at the time of my death.

3^d After all my just debts are paid, I bequeath to my Beloved wife Catherine Sedon all my entire Estate both ~~both~~ real and personal of Every description whatsoever -

4th I appoint my beloved wife Catharine Sedon, my Executor to carry this my last will into effect. Ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament -

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand seal this Third day of November, one thousand Eight hundred and ninety

Justanus A. Sedon. [Signature]

Signed, sealed & acknowledged in presence of

James J. Sloan.

Elijah Page

At Roanoke County Court, April 17th, 1893:—

The last Will and Testament of Gustavus A. Sedon, deceased, was this day produced in court, and proved according to law by the oaths of James J. Sloan and Elijah Poage, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the Records of Court.

Test:—

Wm McCauley, clerk.

Virginia M. Kasey.

In the name of God, Amen. I, the undersigned, Virginia M. Kasey, wife of Thomas A. Kasey, of the town of Salem, Roanoke County, Virginia, being of sound mind, but feeble of body and aware of the uncertainty of life, do make this my last will and testament: as follows, to wit:

Item 1. I commend my soul to its maker, and my body to the earth, whence it came.

Item 2. I hereby appoint my said husband my executor, and request that he be allowed to qualify without giving security.

Item 3. I will and devise to my daughter, Johnny Lee Kasey the parcel of land in said town known as my "home place," embracing my dwelling house, out-houses, (including the barn and stable), the yard, garden and orchard, and bounded on the North by Calhoun Street, on the west by "Chestnut Street" as laid off, but departing westward from Chestnut Street so as to include the Barn and Stable as at present enclosed, and returning to said Chestnut Street, thence north to the South west corner of my garden, thence eastward with the garden fence, as now enclosed, to John W. Thomas' line, thence northward along the lines of said Thomas, Francis A. Chalmers, Mrs. J. St. Stanborough, St. L. Grand & St. M. Nelson back to the beginning on Calhoun Street; and also all of my household and kitchen furniture. These to be accounted for by her at a valuation of $1500.00 in the division of my estate.

Item 4. I devise to my son, Robert T. Kasey, the house and lot known as lot No. 1, at the Southern end of "the Kasey Row" of five buildings on the west side of Chestnut Street; this to be accounted for by him at a valuation of $1200.00 in the division of my estate.

Item 5. I devise to my son, Goga Ashby Kasey, the house and lot No 5 in the said "Kasey Row" at the Northern end thereof:— this to be accounted for by him at a valuation of $1200.00 in the division of my estate.

Item 6. I devise to my daughter, Mrs Berta M. Haislip, the house and lot on West side of Union Street in said town, — same now occupied by her, and same already conveyed to her, — this to be accounted for by her at a valuation of $1300.00 in the division of my estate.