

among my children, as hereinafter directed.
After the death of my said wife, the property, both real and personal, herein bequeathed to her, shall be sold at auction, upon such terms as my executor shall deem most advantageous, and the money which shall have been loaned for her benefit shall be collected.

I direct that all my money, as soon as available for that purpose shall be distributed among my children as follows. First to my son Annie Lee Garwood and my daughter Mary Elizabeth Garwood, one hundred dollars each, to make them equal with my other children each of whom has hitherto received a like amount. And the residue shall equally distributed among all my children.

I hereby appoint and constitute S. E. Kefauver as executor of this my last will and testament.

I direct, that in case my said wife shall again marry, that all the provision made for her herein, shall be void from the time of such marriage, and my executor shall proceed to carry out the provisions of this will.

In witness whereof I hereby affix my hand and seal this, the 3rd day of February A.D 1894.

John <sup>his</sup> Garwood <sup>Seal</sup>
mark

Witnessed by
D.P. Richardson
L. D. Gilston.

At Roanoke County Circuit Court April 4th 1896.
The last Will and Testament of John Garwood, deceased, was this day produced in Court, and proved according to law by the oaths of D.P. Richardson and L. D. Gilston, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Date:

H. Griffin, Clerk.

H. A. Forsyth. In the name of God Amen. I H. A. Forsyth of the town of Salem in Roanoke County State of Virginia do hereby make Publish and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking any and all wills by me heretofore made.

1st I direct my executors hereinafter named to pay my funeral expences and Doctors Bill made since the first day of November 1895 as soon as can conveniently (can) be done after my decease,

2<sup>d</sup> I devise and give and bequeath to my wife Emma D. Forsyth the use rents issues & profits of my dwelling house and the lot on which the same lies on Calhoun street in the town of Salem in the county of Roanoke state of Virginia joining the lots of Judge Griffen James L. Dyerle and Mrs Martha Board for and during her natural life at her death to be sold and divided equally between the heirs of J. H. Forsyth & heirs of Sarah Everly Ligon, & John & Annie Lee Ligon & Tom Ligon. I also give to my said wife all the Household furniture Beds, Bedding Books and all other household articles Provisions and other consumable stores and all money which shall be in or about my said dwelling and elsewhere at the time of my death For her sole and separate use I also claim the homestead on all debts made before the year 1895, and up to the time of my death, and I request and direct my executors to carry out my request without fail.

3<sup>d</sup> I hereby nominate constitute and appoint my said wife Emma D. Forsyth without security my executors & J. H. Forsyth to assist her as executor of this my last will and testament, in witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 8th day of Dec. 1896
Witnesses

H. A. Forsyth (seal)

Signed sealed Published and declared by the said testator H. A. Forsyth as his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto (subscribed our names as witnesses)
Wm T. Francis

At Roanoke County Circuit Court, October Term 1897.
 A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Henry A. Forsyth, deceased, was this day produced in court, and there being no subscribing witnesses then, William M. Barnitz and C. A. McLean, were sworn and severally deposed, that they are well acquainted with the testator's hand-writing, and verily believe the said hand-writing, and the name thereon subscribed, to be wholly written by the testator's own hand. Whereupon, the said writing is ordered to be recorded, as the true last will and testament of the said Henry A. Forsyth, deceased.

A copy from the records of court.

Test:

W. Griffin, Clerk.

Martha D. Logan. I give and bequeath to my son Robert Logan two thirds of my estate Real, Personal and mixed.

The other third of my estate I give and bequeath to my son John Lewis Logan.

I request that my son Robert will not let his generous spirit make him take any steps to alter the above provisions of this my last will and testament.

Given under my hand and seal this 9th day of January 1892.

Martha D. Logan/ Seal

The war put a stop to Robert's education, so that he was not qualified to make his living as John Lewis was.

Martha D. Logan.

At Roanoke County Circuit Court April Terms 1898.
 The last will and testament of Mrs Martha D. Logan, deceased, was this day produced in court and proved, according to law, by the oaths of Robert H. Logan and Philip L. Burwell, who deposed that they are well acquainted with the hand-writing of the said Mrs Fannie P. Huff, deceased and only believe the said writing and the and verily believe the said writing and annexed codicil, and the name of the testator, subscribed to said writing and codicil, to be wholly written by the testator's own hand. Whereupon, the said writing and codicil are ordered to be recorded as the true last will and testament of Mrs Martha D. Logan, deceased.

Whereupon, on motion of Robert Logan, one of the heirs and distributees of the estate of Mrs Martha D. Logan, deceased, who made oath and together with Robert H. Logan, his surety, who made oath as to his sufficiency, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of Two Thousand Dollars, conditioned according to law, certificate is granted him for obtaining letters of administration with the will annexed on the estate of the said Martha D. Logan, deceased.

A copy from the records of court,
 Test: W. Griffin Clerk,

Salem January 28th 1898

Fannie P. Huff.

Mrs A. E. Huff will

At my death I want this house just as it stands to go to L. B. Huff his life time, I want it kept in the family as long as there is one of them living. If Kent should die or anything happen to Sallie his wife I want her to have a home with you in this house Blanton, if there is any little memento the other children wish let them have it, of course a home for her his life time

Fannie P. Huff

At Roanoke County Circuit Court April 4th 1898.

A writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Mrs Fannie P. Huff, deceased, was this day produced in court and proved according to law, by the oaths of W. C. Stone, Willard F. Huff and W. G. Armstrong, who deposed that they are well acquainted with the hand-writing of the said Mrs Fannie P. Huff, deceased and only believe the said writing and the