

Henry Butth.

In the name of God, Amen; I Henry Butth, of the County of Roanoke, State of Virginia, do make this my last Will and Testament, as follows:

I desire that my body shall be decently buried, in a manner corresponding to my estate and situation in life but with as little expense as may be, consistently therewith;

And as to such of my worldly estate, as I may die seized and possessed of, I dispose of the same as follows:

1st as to such of my personal property, as I may hold and own at my death, I do desire, that my executor herein after named, do sell the same for as much cash as possible; and I further direct that my executor pay, out of the cash gotten for my said personal property, the sum of five dollars to each of my herein named grand children, (Children of my dead daughter, Leana Lemon) viz: Laura Lemon, Fannie Lemon, and Mattie Lemon. The residue of said sum of money derived from the sale of said personal property, I do direct my said executor to pay the same in two equal parts to my son, George W. Butth, and my daughter, Mollie J. Butth. But before the sale of my said personal property, I do desire and direct that my beloved wife, Elizabeth Butth, shall have the use of the same for the natural term of her life, such sale to be made as soon after her death as possible

2nd As to my real estate the farm upon which I now reside, I do desire the same to be held and used by my beloved wife, Elizabeth Butth for the term of her natural life, and at her death, I do give and bequeath ^{acres} sixty-four of said farm, lying next to and adjoining the property of my son, Geo. W. Butth, the line dividing said sixty-four acres from the residue of my farm, to be run parallel with the line between the farm of my son G. W. Butth and my own farm, to my son Geo. W. Butth and his heirs in fee simple.

The residue of my farm with the improvements thereon I do give and bequeath unto my daughter, Mollie J. Butth in fee simple 3rd It is further my will and desire, if my daughter, Mollie J. Butth, should die without issue, living at her death, then the interest devised to my said daughter, Mollie J. Butth, in section 2. of this will, shall be equally divided, amongst the children of my son, Geo. W. Butth, and the children of my daughter, Leana Lemon, deceased.

4th I hereby appoint, G. W. Zirkle, executor of this my last will and testament.

Witness my hand this 24th day of March in the year of our Lord 1892.

Henry ^{his} Butth
mark

Signed and published by Henry Butth, as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us, who in the presence of him, and in the presence of each other have herunto subscribed
our names, as witnesses

L. G. Reid
H. W. Hundley,
J. H. Henning.

Witnesses.

At Roanoke County Court August Term 1894.

The last Will and Testament of Henry Butth, deceased, was this day produced in Court, and proven according to law by the oaths of J. H. Henning and H. W. Hundley, two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, and thereupon ordered to be recorded.

A copy from the records of Court.

Teste:

H. Griffin, clerk.

Moorman.

Roanoke County State of Va. June 27. 1894.

I Mark B. Moorman humbly the uncertainty of life By the permission of Almighty God do feel it my duty to make my will and make such disposition of my Estate as I think best and satisfactory do call and bequeath to my eldest daughter Mary C. Henderson & her husband J. A. Henderson and their heirs one hundred acres of land on the lower end of the tract I now live on the tract I now live and the saw mill and its fixtures and all the dwelling on said land to include all dwelling and improvements the said Henderson to pay my son W. S.
Moorman one Hundred and fifty dollars within twelve months after my death and one Hundred in twelve months thereafter making five Hundred dollars & be theirs forever,

I now will to my second Lette Damewood to her and her husband John W. Damewood the residue of my Estate and all of my personal property including such as stock Wagon Jersey &c Farming implements &c. they are to keep my wife during life time she to have and all as hers during life time the said John W. Damewood to pay my son the sum of five Hundred $500 H. E. Moorman one hundred in twelve months after my death & one hundred and fifty in twelve months thereafter I now will my shot gun to my two sons them to cast lots we will get it Damewood is to have all of my tools including Blacksmith tools &c.

I now sign this as my last Will & Testament I also appoint