Henry Stale

In the name of God amen.

I Henry Stale of the Town of Salem, County of Roanoke Virginia, being of sound mind and disposing memory, but considering the shortness and uncertainty of life do make and publish this as my last will and testament.

Per quit claim or release recorded March 6, 1931 Reem Book #11

First, I will and devise to my loved wife Abbie Stale all of my real Estate wherever situated for and during the term of her natural life, she to have all the rents and profits of the same and to use the same as she may desire.

Secondly, I will and devise to my said wife in fee all of my personal property, to be hers absolutely, with power to dispose of the same by will or otherwise.

Thirdly, after the death of my said wife, I desire that all my real Estate be for my daughter Julia Ann Stale, subject to a charge of one hundred and fifty dollars, to Henry Stale, an adopted son of myself and wife, should he survive my said wife.

Fourthly I appoint my said wife Abbie, as Exor of this my last will & testament and desire that she be allowed to qualify as such without giving security as such. I also appoint my wife guardian of said adopted son Henry, and desire that she be allowed to qualify as such without being required to give security as such guardian.
