Henry Keagy

In the name of Gods Amen; I Henry Keagy of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia do make this my last will and Testament hereby revoking all former wills made by me. In Premise The land on which I live and that which I hold in the barrens all of which I bought of Leonard Houty I direct to be divided as follow to wit: The home tract on that on which I live, by a line running across it in the following manner, Beginning at a white oak corner to Christian Bick's formerly John Bick's land, and thence leaving him south 83 1/2° W 135 poles to an apple tree and thence south 5 1/4° W 35 poles crossing a branch of Carvins creek, to a black oak the out corner on a line of Robertsons lands - To my son Henry Keagy and his heirs I give and devise all the lower part of the home tract according to the above recited division being the part on which the dwelling house now stands - also one half the tract of land in the barrens the same to be divided as herein after directed I also give and devise to my said son Henry forty acres of land adjoining the upper part of the home tract to be laid off as follows: Beginning at two pines on a line of a grant of three hundred acres to William Carvin, and corner to a tract of one hundred and eighty two acres granted to Leonard Houty in 1795 and thence with the line of the same N 69 3/4° W 182 poles to three pines and a double chestnut oak - thence south 89° W 37 poles to two pines - thence south 69° East 15 poles to three pines, thence north 41 1/2° East 37 poles to the Beginning. And to prevent all difficulty that may arise from any mistake in the recital of the boundaries, I state that this tract of forty acres is the timbered land adjoining the lands of Woods, the land hereinafter given to Henry Keagy and which runs toward the Green Bridge - I also give to my said son Henry and his heirs the right to keep of the land on the upper part of the tract at its present height and to raise it higher provided that by so raising it we does not flood the lands or injure the spring on the upper tract - also the right to obtain stone from the upper tract for building or repairing said dam and to conduct the water along the present race without hindrance or molestation and to dig earth for repairing the same - and the right also of bringing water in pipes from the upper spring to the dwelling house, saving and reserving however to the devisee of the upper part of the tract hereinafter mentioned the right to use in a reasonable way the water from the race for watering the meadows - So Henry M. Francis husband of my daughter Anne, I give all the upper part of my home tract according to the division herein before set forth - also one half of my lands in the Barrens to be divided according to quantity to quality and he to have that portion which joins the lands now owned by him - So my said daughter Anne, I give my house clock and also one half my German books and one half the household and kitchen furniture - I may die, possess of the other half of the German books and of the furniture I give to my daughter Mary - having already given to Jacob Shookler the husband of my daughter Mary and to my son Christopher Vieggy in money and property as much as I think or can give, them respectively I hereby declare that it is not my intention that either the said Jacob or his wife Mary or my said son Christopher shall have any farther portion of the estate real or personal of which I may die, possess except the devise above mentioned of books and furniture to my daughter Mary - I appoint my son Henry Vieggy & my son in law Henry M. Francis the Executors of this my last will & testament - In Testimony of all which I have hereunto set my hand & seal on this 17th day of January 1841 signed seal and acknowledged as his last Will & testament in presence of

Edward Watts
Christian Rich

The death of Henry M. Francis to whom in my above will I have devised a portion of my property makes it necessary that I should annex thereto this codicil which I hereby declare is to be considered as such & to have full power & validity - all that part of my will which relates to the said Henry M. Francis so far as any revocation is necessary I declare to be revoked and annulled and to my daughter Anne, widow & relict of the said Henry M. and her heirs I give and devise all the estate real and personal which in the body of my Will was given and devised to her husband the said Henry M. upon the same terms & conditions according to the same limits as are therein set forth, In Testimony of this being a codicil to my last Will & Testament I have hereto set my hand & seal this 19th day of June 1841 signed seal and acknowledged in presence of

Edward Watts
