

At Roanoke September Court 1853: This paper purporting to be a renunciation on the part of Susan Carney of the provisions of the will of Charles Carney deceased was produced in Court, proved by the oaths of William Mc Dermott & Samuel G. Woods witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded
 Teste F. Johnston Clerk

Henry Webster

The last will and testament of Henry Webster deceased. I Henry Webster of Roanoke County being of sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form, hereinafter stated in the first place, I declare after my just debts and funeral expenses are paid - To my daughter Jane for services rendered I give my young roan mare, the balance of my personal property after my debts to be scaled and equally divided between all my children two in number, I give to my son John and my daughters Jane & Sarah my black man Jack, for their own use, my son Daniel, be to be charged with twenty four dollars having received that amount my son David has received fifty dollars in a horse & saddle which he is to be charged with, Charles Mc Gray has received thirty dollars which he is to be charged with on a division I direct that my plantation be divided between all of my children to wit, Daniel, David, John Henry Sarah Jane Elizabeth Lucy Mary Nancy to be divided equally in quality I direct that John Jane & Sarah lot be laid off together at the lower end of the plantation including the improvements I direct that that John Jane & Sarah each to have a beed and cow, before a sail or divisions as all that have left me have had the same, To carry this my last will in to full effect, I appoint my friend & neighbour David Sloan my executor, Given under my hands this 30th day of May 1854
 Interlined before signed Henry Webster (seal)
 Lewis R. Stover
 Sipton M. Hudson

At Roanoke June Court 1854. This last will and testament of Henry Webster deceased was produced in Court and proved according to law by the oaths of Lewis R. Stover and Sipton M. Hudson, subscribing witnesses thereto, and is ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of David Sloan, the Executor therein named who made oath thereto and together with Bernard Putzer and Richard Stearns his securities, entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of $1000 with condition according to law certificate is granted the said David Sloan for obtaining probat of the said will in due form

A Copy from the records of Court
 Teste

F. Johnston

Adam Garman

I Adam Garman of Roanoke County & State of Virginia do hereby make my last will & testament in manner and form following, that is to say, 1st I desire that after the payment of my just debts funeral expenses, that my wife Catharine & my daughter Sarah shall enjoy full entire possession of all my land & personal estate during my wife Catharine's lifetime; 2^d After the decease of my wife I give unto my daughter Sarah that portion of my land on which my dwelling stands from a white oak corner of Mr. Mathie's land at the road with the road to a sugar tree at the mouth of a branch leading from the lands of Jacob Brunk & with said branch to the line on the N. side of my land & with said line to said white oak, also all my house hold furniture & all my stock that is or may be on the premises at my decease; 3^d I give to my other five children viz, Joseph Garman, Elizabeth, Agnes, Nancy, & Esch, John Garman & Magdalen Beem, the balance of my land to be divided equally between them charging to Joseph Garman & John Garman each ten acres of land that I gave them in a piece of land now owned by Mrs. Mathas, which I estimate at ten dollars per acre, And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend Edwards Mc Donalds Executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other or former wills or testaments by me heretofore made,
 In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this the 28th day of October 1853
 Attest Edw^d. Mc Donalds
 Adam Garman (seal)

At a Court held for the County of Roanoke on Monday the 19th day of June 1854. The last will and Testament of Adam Garman deceased was this day produced and offered for probat, which motion was resisted by Joseph Garman, And the testimony of Adam Garman and Edward Mc Donalds, the subscribing witnesses thereto having been heard, the Court, without deciding upon the question of probat adjourns the case over until tomorrow morning 10 o'clock, and at a Court continued and held for said County on Wednesday the 20th day of June 1854. The last will and Testament of Adam Garman deceased was again produced in Court, and the arguments of Counsel heard and the motion to admit the same to probat, and the court regarding the said will to be proved according to law, and that the testator was of sound mind, sustains the motion to admit the said will to record, and it is ordered accordingly
 A Copy from the Record of Court
 Teste F. Johnston